Interim Agreement OK'd

'No-Strike' Pact Signed By Crucible, Steel Union

AGREEMENT SIGNED. Kay Kluz, left, director of District 20, United Steelworkers of America, and Joseph Scalise Jr., vice president of employe relations for Crucible Steel Corp., sign the interim no-strike pact.

The first strike-free settlement in the upcoming steel industry negotiations with the United Steelworkers of America was announced today by Crucible Steel Corp. officials.

The agreement provides for an immediate 10 cent interim hourly increase until the July 31 expiration date of industry contracts, and an additional 5 cent hourly increase for 15 cents paid from Aug. 1 until the industry wage scale has been established by contract.

"We have bought an insurance policy, costing far less than a shutdown and startup costs which a strike would bring to our Midland, Pa., plant alone," said Crucible President John C. Lobb.

"We look upon our customers as the beneficiary of this insurance protection," he added. "The dreary three-year cycle of inflated hedge buying, followed by either a strike or inventory liquidation hurts the company and its employees. This agreement was made possible by the collective bargaining process resulting in settlement of all local issues in all Crucible mills," according to Lobb.

In Council Action

Bonds Approved For Street Work

Council enacted an ordinance Monday night clearing the way for a $100,000 municipal bond issue to finance improvements on lower St. Clair Ave., the River Rd. and a block-long section of Washington St.

Approved unanimously, the legislation authorizes funds for blacktop resurfacing and other work on: St. Clair Ave. from 6th St. to Princeton Ave., connecting with the new three-lane stretch; Broadway from E. 3rd St. to the Penn Central railroad tracks and River Rd. from that point to St. George St. and Washington St. between E. 3rd St. and E. 4th St.

The bonds will be issued in May 1969 and retired in 20 years in substantially equal annual installments, the legislation provides.

COUNCIL received estimates in mid-March showing the St. Clair Ave. project would cost about $43,000 and the River Rd. work would run approximately $45,000.

The legislation also authorizes the city to sell notes in anticipation of the issuance of bonds. This procedure always is followed in such cases, as the city can borrow money on notes quickly, contract for a project and then sell bonds to redeem the notes. Bonds are sold for long-term borrowing because they usually draw a lower interest rate than notes.

In a related action, Council enacted a so-called "consent ordinance" agreeing to a proposal of the Ohio Highway Department that it hire a consulting engineer firm to update a 1955 arterial highway survey—the first step toward detailed planning for the next stage of the Freeway between W. 3rd and Monroe Sts. and East End.

THE STATE will pay the bill for the consultant's work, estimated to cost $50,000. A four-year-old agreement between the city and state provided the city would hire the consultant, but this was rescinded as part of the action last night.

Mayor George E. Willshaw said the city now will be required to pay only 5 per cent of the consultant's fee instead of the full $50,000. The 5 per cent will represent the city's share of the overall project cost, he explained.

Drive Slated For 2 Weeks

Citywide Spring Cleanup To Be Launched Monday

The annual citywide spring cleanup campaign will open Monday morning in the North Side - Maplewood - Beechwood area, Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey said today.

The campaign will continue for two weeks — through Friday, May 24 — with the trucks hauling away the winter accumulation of trash and refuse which householders have cleared from cellars, attics, gardens and lawns. The cleanup will follow the usual daily trash collection schedules.

The drive will open on Route No. 2, with work beginning in the general North Side-Maplewood - Beechwood district. The cleanup will continue daily, Monday through Friday of the two weeks.

Schedules will be announced daily to enable householders to place refuse at the curb or property line the night before a scheduled collection. The refuse should be in place the night before a scheduled collection, as the trucks will begin their rounds at 7 a.m.

Officials warned that all trash must be in suitable sturdy containers. Metal containers or baskets have a tendency to split or fall apart in a rain storm, allowing the contents to spill.

Old papers, rags, trash and grass trimmings should be in containers, they said. Hedge trimmings or small limbs cut from trees should be tied in bundles not over four feet long. The size limitation is dictated by the loading mechanism of the "packer body" trucks.

Following the usual practice, the city trucks will not haul bulky old building materials or other items not in proper containers that must be shoveled onto trucks.

U.S. Forces Join In New Saigon Battle

Cut Off Viet Cong Attack In 3rd Day Of Hard Fighting

SAIGON (AP) — American tanks and armored personnel carriers joined the new battle of Saigon today, cutting off a Viet Cong attack from the southwest in the third day of hard fighting on the city's fringes.

U.S. troops had not been used inside Saigon since they helped smash the Viet Cong's lunar new year offensive in February. In the latest assaults, which began Sunday, the Americans have been outside the capital searching the enemy units which might further threaten the city.

U.S. officers believed the enemy thrusts both around Saigon and in South Vietnam's northern sector were aimed at giving the North Vietnamese a bargaining edge when preliminary peace talks with the United States open in Paris this week.

In the north, officers reported one enemy force surrounded near Hue and others withdrawing from around Dong Ha after losing more than 1,000 men in six days of close-quarter fighting.

The battle in southwest Saigon today began when an estimated 150 Viet Cong trying to push into the city attacked a South Vietnamese outpost near the Kinh Doi Canal.

Armored personnel carriers from the U.S. 9th Infantry Division moved in to cut them off. The infantrymen reported killing 35 enemy soldiers, and five Americans were wounded.

'Image' Fought Doped, 'Pass' Ruled Winner

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Dancer's Image, winner of the Kentucky Derby, was drugged before the race, Churchill Downs said today.

He will be disqualified, placed last, and all winnings turned over to Calumet Farm, owner of the second place horse, Forward Pass.

The track said a chemist for the state racing commission reported that an analysis of the urine sample taken from Dancer's Image "contained phenylbutacone and a derivative thereof." Phenylbutacone is a pain killer and stimulant, the track said.

680 Ballots Listed In Local Precincts For First 4 Hours

East Liverpool recorded an average forenoon vote estimated at 680 as its electors went to the polls today, along with Columbiana County and the State of Ohio, to nominate Republican and Democratic slates for state, district and county offices.

The estimated turnout is up almost 10 per cent from the 632 listed in the last comparable election in 1964. But the polls opened an hour earlier for the 1968 primaries and the morning vote today represents four hours of polling, as contrasted with three hours four years ago.

The actual count showed 170 ballots cast in a sampling of seven precincts. Democrats had voted 92 ballots and Republicans had cast 78. The Democratic vote was heavier, as expected, because of the Lausche-Gilligan fight for the party's nomination for the U. S. senate.

On the basis of the forenoon check, the county and city total votes will fall close to the turnout in 1964 and the county predicted for today.

The county cast 16,503 ballots in 1964, including 3,384 in East Liverpool. Pre-election forecasts call for 16,500 ballots countywide today, including about 3,350 in East Liverpool.

As usual, Precinct 2-E, which votes at the North Side Fire Station, cast the heaviest vote in the morning poll today. The polling place showed 51 ballots — 32 Republican and 19 Democratic.

Precinct 2-I, located in Beechwood, cast 5 Republican and 15 Democratic ballots in the first four hours today. Four years ago, it showed 9 Republican and 12 Democratic votes. Precinct 3-C, voting at the Central Fire Station, showed 13 Republican and 15 Democratic ballots in the morning check. In the 1964 primaries, it cast 16 Republican and 11 Democratic ballots in the first three hours.

Here's the morning vote in four other city precincts for which comparative figures are not available: 1-B on St. George St., 9 Republican and 21 Democratic; 1-F on 1st Ave., 4 Republican and 10 Democratic; 3-F on Lincoln Ave., 9 Republican and 5 Democratic; and 4-E on John St., 6 Republican and 7 Democratic.

In the 1960 primaries, also a presidential year, East Liverpool showed 1,124 forenoon votes. The county's total vote

Skin Divers Called To Aid In Rescue Of 25 Miners

HOMINY FALLS, W.Va. (AP)

The call went out for skin divers today to aid in the rescue of 25 coal miners trapped inside a two-mile coal shaft by thousands of gallons of water.

The divers were due in from Philadelphia before noon to aid the miners trapped in the low, L-shaped mine shaft since noon Monday.

Surface rescue units, which worked through a night of near freezing temperatures, had made telephone contact with 15 of the entombed men. The other 10 were at the low end of the flooded shaft and had not been heard from since water poured through a mine wall from an adjacent abandoned mine.

The officials hoped the three divers equipped with scuba, self-contained underwater breathing apparatus, could make their way to the miners with air tanks and possibly food.

Rescue directors scored a breakthrough when they lashed plastic tubes containing water, sandwiches and hot coffee to the mine conveyor belt to the 13 trapped nearest the entrance.

The packages went in at 4:44 a.m. and 13 minutes later, the radiotelephone crackled with the word, "We got 'em."

"I know 15 of the guys are going to be okay," said Ernest Fitzwater, who escaped from the mine just before it became flooded.

But he said the 10, including his brother, Joe, are at the deepest part. "There is no way they can get out alive."

Loses 2-Year Battle Against Cancer

Gov. Lurleen B. Wallace Of Alabama Dies At 41

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)

Gov. Lurleen B. Wallace, 41, whose compassion for the afflicted symbolized her brief career as a public official, died in her sleep today after a two-year battle against cancer.

Her husband, George, whom she succeeded as governor 16 months ago, and her four children were at her bedside in the white-columned executive mansion when the end came at 12:34 a.m.

Immediately on her death, Lt. Gov. Albert Brewer, 39-year-old Decatur, Ala., attorney, became governor under Alabama's law of succession.

Funeral arrangements have not been announced. Despite the recurring cancer which caused three operations in two years, there was no known evidence that Mrs. Wallace had been stricken with another malignancy since a small tumor was removed from her pelvic wall last Feb. 22.

But there were obvious debilitating aftereffects which tore away her resistance and ultimately left her too weak to fight back. Friends said she weighed only about 65 pounds.

The immediate cause of death was not made known in the official announcement from acting news secretary Ed Ewing. His voice quivering with emotion, Ewing said the governor "lost her gallant fight for life at 12:34 a.m. Tuesday, May 7. She died quietly in her sleep."

Mrs. Wallace died on the day thousands of Alabama voters were preparing to vote in a statewide Democratic primary election in which her husband

Ties It To Spending Cut

House Unit OKs Tax Hike

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's income tax hike bill, cold-shouldered since last summer by the House Ways and Means Committee, is basking in the relative warmth of the panel's qualified endorsement.

But the congressional fight has escalated over the size of a proposed spending cut tied to the tax boost.

Making its first formal decision on the $10 billion income-tax increase request, the committee voted for the hike Monday provided federal spending is cut at least $4 billion.

The House Appropriations Committee had previously recommended this figure and Johnson has said he would accept it although reluctantly.

Rep. John W. Byrnes of Wisconsin, ranking Republican on the Ways and Means Committee called the panel's action "a surrender and a capitulation" in the face of White House urgings. The committee's vote for the tax bill was 17 to 6, with 13 Democrats and 4 Republicans supporting it. Byrnes and other Republicans opposed it.

As for the committee's setting a $4 billion minimum in spending reductions, Byrnes said: "That's their weasel out to accept $4 billion. For all practical purposes, $4 billion is now the ceiling as well as the floor for reductions."

Byrnes and other Republicans want a $6 billion cut, and the Senate has voted in favor of the larger amount.

The Ways and Means Committee's vote for at least $4 billion leaves Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., and other economy advocates free to try for a deeper cut in the Senate-House conference committee which is trying to hammer out a compromise tax-spending bill.

Interest In Ohio Centers On Lausche And Gilligan Battle

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey face their first 1968 primary tests today in two of five elections around the nation.

The primaries are in Indiana, Ohio, Alabama, Florida and the District of Columbia.

Kennedy's major test is in the Indiana primary against Democratic presidential rival Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy—and Gov. Roger D. Branigin who was expected to get some Humphrey supporters' votes.

In the District of Columbia primary, Humphrey and Kennedy slates are competing for Washington's 23 delegate nominating votes at the Democratic National Convention.

In other political developments:

—Republican presidential candidate Richard M. Nixon, campaigning in Nebraska for the May 14 primary there, called for a new diplomacy to deal with any future Communist aggression.

There should be diplomacy, he said in Omaha, "so that when the freedom of friendly nations is threatened by aggression, we help them fight the war and don't fight the war for them."

—In final Indiana campaign bids, Kennedy traveled through northwest industrial sections and McCarthy through Indianapolis. Branigin called estimated large numbers of undecided voters "a good sign" for his candidacy.

—Humphrey accentuated the positive at a luncheon in New York City. "I do not believe America is sick," he said. "It is leaving the age of innocence and coming into its maturity."

—Democratic Sen. Carl Hayden, 90-elected Arizona's first U.S. congressman in 1912—announced he will retire early next year. He has been in Congress nearly 57 years, longer than any other man.

Nixon was unchallenged in Indiana and no write-in votes were permitted. His supporters have fought a Democratic drive for GOP crossover votes to Branigin, which would hurt Nixon's Indiana showing.

In the Kennedy-Humphrey District of Columbia confrontation, there were two slates for Humphrey—one inherited after President Johnson announced

Tax Revenue Hits $148,041 For 3 Months

City income tax receipts hit $148,041.77 in the first quarter of 1968, an increase of $11,191.51 from the $136,850.18 in the same three months of 1967, Council learned Monday night.

The report on revenues was filed by D. G. Wilkinson, tax commissioner. He said the total was comprised of $77,817 in withholding taxes, $20,324 from business houses and $49,899 remitted through individual returns.

Wilkinson said the report could not be submitted earlier because his office staff was busy with the heavy work load after the tax deadline April 15. He said he will submit his next report after the close of the second quarter June 30.

Meanwhile, Solicitor J. Michael Kapp was given Council authority to file an action with the State Board of Tax Appeals from the County Budget Commission's refusal to grant the city the authority to appropriate immediately the new revenue it anticipates from a hike in the city income tax voted in mid-March. The tax was raised

Teachers Hired, Buses Approved At Beaver Local

Hiring of seven new instructors and awarding of a contract for four new school buses were approved by the Beaver Local Board of Education Monday night.

The board accepted the resignations of Don Frischkorn, fifth-grade teacher at Calcutta who plans to study for a degree; Gary Walker, high school instructor, will be a cadet principal at Lakewood, and Harold Backer, high school English instructor, who will teach at Columbiana.

HIRE were Jack Bare of Canfield, Kent State University graduate, to teach commercial subjects at the Public School; Gary Williams of Apples Corners, to teach high school commercial subjects; Miss Anna B. Spore of East Liverpool, speech and hearing therapist; Mrs. Virginia Beck of St. Clair Ave., Steubenville College graduate, to teach at Calcutta.

Richard Wakeman of Youngstown University graduate, to teach Rogers fifth grade; Robert McCafferty of Steubenville, to teach high school commercial subjects; and Mrs. Virginia Campbell of West Point, to teach at West Point.

Supt. Roy Cashdollar said two more English instructors are needed to complete the faculty for next year.

The Wimmer Motor Sales of East Liverpool was awarded a contract to supply chassis for four new buses at $4,050 for each bus. The Mevers Equipment Co. of Canfield was awarded a contract for supplying the bus bodies at $3,525.

Tax Collection Set

Western Beaver Board Approves College Costs

Western Beaver School Board of Directors Monday night approved the proposed budget and building program of the Beaver County Community College.

The board also adopted regulations for collection of wage taxes in the district.

The system will contribute $15,661, or 2.26 mills of its assessed valuation, to the college for the next year beginning July 1.

THE OFFICE of Gerald Camp, wage tax collector, will be open at the Ray W. Snyder Elementary School from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily Monday through Friday. Evening appointments may be made. Legal holidays will be observed and standard regulations will be enforced.

Supt. Frank A. Meredith will seek bids for draperies for Fairview School. Old blinds will be replaced with drapes in the original building.

The board accepted the resignations of David J. Brown, high school social studies teacher, and Mrs. Bernadette Cymbor, French-English teacher.

Miss Christine E. Ivey of New Brighton RD 2 was employed as a French instructor. She will graduate from college this spring.

Daniel Rowe, industrial arts instructor, will attend a curriculum conference of the Industrial Arts Education Leaders June 10-14 at Shippensburg State College.

KINDERGARTEN classes will attend the Shrine Circus at Pittsburgh May 9. Third and fourth graders at Logan School will visit WQED television station, Carnegie Museum and Library and the Pittsburgh Zoo this month. Sixth-grade students will visit the wild flower sanctuary at Raccoon Creek State Park.

First- and second- graders will visit Phipps Conservatory

Franklin Detwiler of Rogers RD 1 was hired as custodian at the Rogers School, succeeding Mrs. Verna Kunkle, who resigned effective July 19. The board approved contracts for the 57 non-certified employees of the district.

IN OTHER action, the board approved a Title Three project of $650 for film strips and industrial arts tools; approved the Pioneer Insurance Co., with Jack Pozenal as local agent, for student and athlete insurance; accepted the resignation of William Drane of Stagecoach Rd. as a bus driver; appointed Mrs. Esther Williams of Apples Corners as a substitute bus driver, and granted Mrs. Millie Powell, cafeteria supervisor, to attend a workshop at Kent State University June 19-22.

Gary Williams of Orville Wagner, high school commercial instructors, were named to head the Business Office Experience and Occupational Work Experience vocational programs.

The board authorized a music theory course at the high school to satisfy state minimum requirements for 1968-69. Cashdollar said the addition of a partition between the metal working and woodworking shops will complete the minimum requirements the district will have to satisfy.

The next meeting will be June 4—Tuesday—because graduation of the 163 seniors will be held the regular meeting night—June 3.

Primary

was 15,774. The city's forenoon vote was 388 in 1962, when the total county vote reached 14,938.

The 1956 primaries showed a forenoon city vote of 735. The county's total vote hit 12,667. And in 1954, when there were 402 forenoon voters in East Liverpool, the county's vote went only to 8,200.

All the election timing this year is an hour ahead of past primaries. That's because the entire state of Ohio is using Eastern Daylight Time as its official time. Until 1967, the segment of Eastern Ohio that includes East Liverpool always was on "fast" time for the primaries and the balance of the state was on standard time.

Columbiana County polling places in those years opened at 7:30 a. m. and closed at 7:30 p. m., "fast" time. This year, with daylight time the standard throughout Ohio, the polls opened at 6:30 a. m., local time and will close at 6:30 tonight.

The Election Board is expected to complete its unofficial canvass of returns early Wednesday morning. In the 1964 primaries, all the returns were complete at 2:30 a. m. A similar performance this year would see the results tabulated at 1:30, as voting will end an hour earlier.

The unofficial count was finished at 4:45 a. m. the day after the 1960 primaries. In 1962, the unofficial count closed at 3:30 a. m.

The Election Board will make its usual unofficial "flash" count on top races in East Liverpool area immediately after the polls close tonight. The count will cover only the Republican and Democratic contests for U. S. senator.

The East Liverpool area precinct workers will tabulate the count in the two races and then telephone the figures to the Election Board, which will maintain cumulative totals. Four years ago, the "flash" count was completed in 59 minutes.

The order in which the returns will be tabulated is set in instructions issued by Secretary of State Ted W. Brown.

The first segment will cover three proposed State Constitutional amendments and the offices from U. S. senator through 18th District congressman. The second segment will show the figures on county offices and any local questions and issues. The last section will cover candidates for judge of the appellate court through Common Pleas Court judge, as well as GOP and Democratic aspirants for delegates and alternates to the national conventions.

Palestine Delays Measure On Fee For Ambulances

East Palestine — Complaints about a proposed $15 ambulance service fee in the Unity Township area have delayed action by Council on legislation setting the annual fee.

At a meeting Monday night, Council agreed to study further the plan involving volunteer firemen's ambulance service to the township area.

Funeral directors last year discontinued ambulance service and the firemen took over the operations. However, due to the expenses involved, township residents were asked to aid in the program. Trustees offered a flat grant which city officials termed insufficient and decided to set up the fee plan.

In an 85-minute "closed recess" meeting last night, Council aired complaints about the fee.

Mayor Robert Harding said, "There is little doubt the ordinance for the fees will be passed on schedule; we just need more time to study it." A final reading is scheduled May 20.

The firemen last week appointed a six-member committee to study the rules and regulations.

Council referred to the utility committee a request from Oliver Hinsler of Lisbon to survey the city for establishment of a cable television service. He wishes to survey the poles available and canvass residents to determine interest.

2-To-1 Decision

Hancock Votes Planning Funds

Hancock County commissioners Monday voted 2 to 1 to provide funds as a participating share in a Brooke-Hancock-Jefferson Metropolitan Planning Commission.

The action was taken following a request for aid from Weirton City Manager James Lord, chairman of the planning group.

Commissioners Edward Nogay and William Graham voted for the proposal, with the money to come from the jail fund. Jack Evans, president of the commissioners, voted against the plan.

LORD SAID "it is necessary to create this planning commission in order that the area can take advantage of various government funds available for present planning in progress or those slated for the future."

BHJ was made mandatory by a directive from the Department of Housing and Urban Development which states that a regional planning commission with memberships drawn from the three counties involved must be formed to oversee and rule upon this comprehensive plan.

Lord told the court it would cost the county $9,508 to help complete the overall budget of $40,000 per year, based on population.

Nogay declared, "If it ever becomes necessary to apply for federal funds, they will have to be approved by BHJ, and if we don't have BHJ, we will be in bad shape."

Evans said he feels there are too many faults in the plan and he thinks it is more important to build a new bridge at the northern end of the county. He first said he would not vote on the issue because he will be leaving his position soon.

However when it was voted to take the $9,508 from the funds allotted from jail construction, Evans voted "no."

IN OTHER action, the court unanimously approved the acceptance of a petition filed for the paving of an alley between 5th and 6th Sts. in Newell. Atty. Callie Tsapis, representing residents desiring the improvement, told the court that more than the needed 60 per cent of the people are willing to have their property assessed to pay for the paving. The commissioners said they will let a contract.

Civil Defense Director Andrew Kondik submitted his monthly report and told the court he has replaced all radiological monitoring instruments throughout the county and gave two sets to the Weirton fire departments. He also discussed a meeting held to plan rescue units throughout the county. The plan is to be completed by the end of the summer.

Firemen Baffled At Waynesburg

WAYNESBURG, Pa. (AP)—Firemen were baffled. They couldn't get at the blaze. Flames crackled in the basement and smoke poured out. The problem: the basement had no doors or windows.

Interior stairs were the only direct access, but they were clogged with smoke and flames. Firemen figured one way — and that's what they did. They went down the street two doors, went into the base-

An unofficial estimate placed damage at $150,000.

Flogging was abolished in the U.S. Army on Aug. 5, 1861.

Peace: A Distant Dream

The restrained attitude of President Johnson and the lengthy bargaining session over a talk site are two good reasons for not becoming overly excited about Vietnam peace prospects.

"This is only a very first step and there are many, many hazards and difficulties ahead," Mr. Johnson said.

He is absolutely right. The obstacle to be overcome in negotiating a peace are formidable. It is next to impossible to find any grounds for compromise when both sides want to come out the big winner.

As Washington and Hanoi representatives meet in Paris for preliminary talks, interest will be centered on their movements and statements.

But South Vietnam holds the key.

The United States has promised to keep South Vietnam informed and keep its interests at the forefront.

South Vietnamese officials have been blunt in opposition to a coalition government. Hanoi has let it be known that such a government is one of its prime goals.

There is little likelihood Hanoi will back down on the point. If South Vietnam remains adamant, the United States cannot go against its position.

There are numerous other areas of disagreement and differences of opinion that will continually slow the pace of the talks.

As a matter of fact, there is no assurance the talks will progress beyond the preliminary stage.

As in Korea, the fighting will be vicious during peace talk and the Reds will stall. America negotiators will have to live with that during negotiations. Patience is a prime requirement in the search for an honorable peace.

Despite the imposing list of roadblocks between the United States and peace, the fact remains that a peace offensive has sprouted. The weak shoot is trying to grow and gain strength.

Most of the world is hoping wisdom and reason can nurture it into the full bloom of peace. The desired growth may not occur, but at least there is a more sound basis for hope now than there was before a talk site was selected.

Does The Minority Rule?

The squeaky wheels still are getting the grease on the Ohio State University campus.

Two weeks ago an assistant professor of history burned his draft card before his class. The teacher received a "reprimand" and, presumably, still is available for instructing his classes on how to break the law.

A week ago 75 students captured Ohio State's administration building and held a couple of vice presidents captive for hours to enforce various demands. The 75 still remain as bonafide members of the student body of 35,000.

This week the "Faculty Council for Peace" bought a half-page ad in the campus newspaper, the Lantern, calling for cancellation of the annual military review which has been held on the Oval (the campus' large central area) for generations.

The 6,000 students in the Army, Navy and Air Force ROTCs apparently were not asked about their desires in the matter, but the day after the ad appeared with a handful of signatures the review was ordered moved off the Oval and the athletic field, because of "space limitations."

Ohio State is not a compulsory institution. No one is required to go there. We always thought it was operated to give thousands of Ohioans a wide variety of educational facilities of their choice.

This does not seem to be the case these days. A fraction of a per cent, with muscle and noise, can do not only what they want to do, but also can prevent other students from doing what they want to do.

The way things are going, we wouldn't be surprised to see someone next complain about the stench of the cattle barns and get the College of Agriculture abolished. Or blockade the stadium and kidnap Woody Hayes and get football eliminated.

Olive Branch To Red China

The United States constantly is being vilified by the Communist nations of the world. Foremost among these detractors is Red China.

In fact it is hard to bring to mind a single instance in which Communist China said anything good about the United States.

On the other hand the United States continues to proffer the olive branch to the bellicose Reds. Most recently the United States Information Agency, in a gesture of good will, invited China to send journalists to the United States to cover the 1968 presidential election campaign.

But, in Washington, diplomatic observers tend to believe Peking will reject the offer, fearful that the United States, in turn, would try to get American newspapermen inside China.

Leonard H. Marks, director of the United States Information Agency, said he hoped the offer would be considered seriously by Peking and, if accepted, would lead to further exchanges between the two countries.

He said the United States would not censor any broadcasts made by the Communist Chinese in covering the campaign and that they could express themselves as they wished, in any language.

Director Marks believes that if people can exchange ideas and establish a communication of thought they may find understanding.

He sees this as "our best hope in this very troubled world."

Unfortunately, the Communist nations, with their iron and bamboo "curtains" and other quarantine-type devices, apparently want no part of proposals like the one made by Mr. Marks. It is very doubtful that Red China will accept this latest one.

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

We, the Boosters Club of the East End Red Devils football team thank the stores of East Liverpool who gave so generously to make our "coffee break" a success.

Also thanks to the many individuals who gave; the Penova Radio Club who backed us, and the many workers who gave so much of their time. Without all the help received, it would not have been a success. The boys of the team will be benefited by it, as all the money will be spent to buy new equipment.

Look Away, Look Away!

You Can't Buck It

By Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — Woe to the person in this country who attacks the Establishment. It isn't jail, nor even physical harm, that he must fear. His main problem is that by attacking the Establishment, he automatically becomes a member of it, and there is no greater punishment in the world.

Let us take the case of Samuel Suchard, a pro-Maoist, antiwar, antidraft Leninist-anarchist. Having led demonstrations against the White House, the Pentagon, the U.S. aircraft carrier Enterprise and the YWCA, Suchard was finally caught by the Establishment and dragged down to the Metropolitan Club for lunch.

THERE HE FACED a table of smiling, friendly faces.

"Suchard," one of the Establishment members said, "We've had our eye on you for some time and we think you have what it takes to be one of us."

"A pox on you," Suchard said, "I'm against the Establishment with its stinking rules and fancy clothes and bloated imbeciles. I despise you all." To make his point, Suchard threw his soup on the floor.

Instead of getting angry, the rest of the people at the table applauded.

"Of course, you do," said a second member of the party. "And you have every right to hate us. It's for this reason that we think you would make a marvelous member of the power structure. How would you like a grant from the Ford Foundation so when you attack the Establishment, you won't have to worry about financial problems?"

"To hell with a grant from the Ford Foundation, man. I'm not selling out for any lousy grant. I'm a revolutionist."

Suchard picked up his steak and started to eat it with his fingers.

A third member at the table spoke up. "You don't have to take the Ford grant if you don't want to. Would you consider a lecture tour under our sponsorship? You could go around the country speaking before Rotary and Kiwanis luncheons explaining why you're disenchanted with society, and what we have done wrong. There's a big demand for such speakers now."

For the first time Suchard started losing some of his cool. "What are you guys trying to do to me. Don't you understand I'm against every American institution from the flag to the space program. I want to tear the very fabric of this society apart."

"Of course, you do, Suchard, and we respect you for it. The Establishment is always open to criticism in spite of things you hear to the contrary. We could even arrange for you to be on Meet the Press where you could voice your discontent to millions and millions of people at one time. Or, if you prefer, we could give you your own television show where you could discuss your own opinions in the manner of David Susskind."

Suchard wiped his mouth with his sleeve. "I — I — I — you guys are trying to trap me. I want to get out of here."

The man sitting next to Suchard put his hand gently on Suchard's arm, and said almost in a whisper, "Would you like to be on the cover of Time Magazine, as spokesman for all the discontented?"

Suchard looked from face to face. "I couldn't do it. I mean, what would the guys say?"

"We'd even throw in the cover of Newsweek, Sam."

Suchard said dreamily, "The covers of Time and Newsweek."

"IT WOULDN'T JUST END, there, Sam. We could get you appointed to a government commission to study violence among our youth. We could make you a director of a poverty program; you could meet with the President at the White House, lunch with David Rockefeller, get an honorary degree from Harvard, become a member of the Burning Tree Golf Club, and the beauty of it is, you wouldn't have to give up one of your ideals."

"All right, already," cried Suchard. "I'll do anything you ask me. Just leave me alone."

"We knew you'd see it our way, Sam. Would you like to come down to the racquet club with us after lunch for a few sets of squash?"

Insurance In The Ghetto

Coverage Difficult To Obtain

Riot cost accounting is not an easy business. Standards of measurement vary. Insured losses in the riots and disturbances across the country in April came to $51 million, according to the Insurance Information Institute.

The American Insurance Association estimates the insured losses from the riots in Washington, D.C. at $19 million.

MUCH LOWER percentages of uninsured businesses in six other urban areas were found by the President's Panel on Insurance in Riot-Affected Areas. In a report of Jan. 26 the commission surveyed 1,393 businesses—1,292 in poverty areas—and found 20.1 per cent carried no insurance.

Insurance firms in Washington are upping their rates a flat $5 on homes and 20 per cent on businesses beginning May 13.

Nobody can really say how much the April riots cost the nation. Again, Washington may serve as a partial measure. Deputy Mayor Thomas W. Fletcher on April 25 told the House District Committee that the riots could have cost between $5 million and $6 million in overtime for police, firemen, and others, extra services, and lost tax revenue. About $1.7 million will be lost this fiscal year in tax revenue. Another $1 million will be lost in the year beginning July 1.

This comes nowhere near covering total costs, including losses of buildings and equipment. In the April riots in Washington, 418 business establishments were burned out. Firemen and police are convinced that most fires were set. Rep. Joel T. Broyhill (R Va.) on April 28 suggested that the total cost of the April riots in the District would come to more than $50 million.

MAYOR JEROME P. CAVANAUGH of Detroit on April 30 told a Senate District subcommittee that property in his city lies idle awaiting redevelopment. The merchants, he said, can't get insurance and can't take the risk of rebuilding without it.

An amendment to the pending omnibus housing bill would make insurance available to businessmen and homeowners in riot-vulnerable areas. The federal government would reinsure private insurance costs. The measure would create a National Insurance Development Corporation which would operate on a self-sustaining basis, drawing on reinsurance premiums to cover losses. Premiums in the first year would be based on the $50 million to $75 million riot losses in 1967.

This 'n That

Butter has been used as food by people for thousands of years, although the ancient Greeks, Romans and Scythians used it instead to apply to injuries, to keep their hair down and as a soothing application for sore eyes, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

The states of Maryland and Virginia each contributed territory for the federal district. Since all the government buildings were built on the Maryland side of the Potomac, Virginia asked that the tract of land it had donated to the district be returned. This was done in 1845.

The root system of the giant redwood tree of California is surprisingly shallow, but the roots are so wide - spread that one tree's roots may spread over an acre of land.

Although the limestone of southern Indiana is the most widely known, it really is one of the most common and widely distributed of rocks, and is found in every state of the U.S.

DAVID LAWRENCE

Long Debate

Now that Paris has been selected as a site for the meeting to seek a settlement of the Vietnam War, another long delay may be anticipated, because the composition of the peace conference itself now comes up for consideration.

Some of the candidates for the presidential nomination have indicated they would like to see the National Liberation Front — the political arm of the Communist guerrillas — represented at the conference.

The peoples of South Vietnam are not likely to regard this as a friendly act. Indeed, there has been a noticeable indifference in this country to the feelings of the South Vietnamese, who are making enormous sacrifices in an effort to preserve their independence.

EVEN WHEN TALKS are started, the chances are they will be fruitless for several months. President Johnson expressed at his press conference Friday a cautionary note as he remarked that only "the very first step" has been taken and that "there are many, many hazards and difficulties ahead."

The usual procedure of the Communists is to have a meeting and ask what the United States has to propose. This is carefully noted, and the custom is then to adjourn and send back to Moscow or Peking a report on the proposals.

Decisions are made many miles distant from the conference table, and often the other side doesn't authorize its representatives to make any answer.

It is precisely this kind of stalemate which the United States wishes to avoid. The belief prevails here that there will be less likelihood that the Communists would venture to utilize such a formula indefinitely, since the meeting is to be held in Paris.

Everybody now will be able to learn who is responsible if there is a failure to get a peace agreement.

The American government, in its efforts to get peace talks started with North Vietnam, has been blamed for the delays not only by the Communist world but right here in the United States. The critics of the President, many of them motivated by what they think is "popular" with the country, have been accusing him of going back on his word when he said he would be willing to go to the peace table "anytime, any place." Obviously he meant any suitable location, and didn't mean the city of Hanoi or any other Communist center.

When Indonesia suggested one of its ships as a possible site, Chairman J. William Fulbright of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said that this was not a "neutral" spot because the Communists had recently been overthrown in a revolution in Indonesia.

But the same senator didn't hesitate to favor Warsaw, which is, of course, not a neutral place but the capital of a country that is Communist-controlled.

Again and Again America's adversaries have been encouraged by what is being said inside the United States about the Vietnam War.

In the last few days, a survey made by the Gallup Poll has shown that the "hawks" and the "doves" are now about 50-50. But in describing a "hawk" or a "dove," the distinction was on the basis of whether the individual wanted to "step up" or "reduce our military effort in Vietnam."

AS BETWEEN THOSE two points of view, certainly a large number would not have a chance to make clear that they do not, in any case, want the United States to go to the peace table and surrender.

It is evident that the North Vietnamese have been shrewdly planning to prolong the debate over peace terms. The idea is to keep the preliminary talks going — past the time of the American elections, if possible. Meanwhile, the United States has restricted its bombing, and this is a big advantage to North Vietnam.

The North Vietnamese have completely misinterpreted the temper and mood of the United States.

Certainly the American people would like to see an end to the war. But they also want to be assured that there will not be a bigger war coming as the result of some patched-up peace which merely opens the way for further Communist aggressions in other Asian countries that would surely involve the United States militarily once more.

tions, Midland Division, took the initiative and went to the steelworkers as early as last December to request that all local issues be submitted in writing," Lobb explained.

"Together with the union delegation, headed by Kay Kluz, District 20 director of USW, hammered away at these problems until complete settlement was reached."

"The alternative to this action," he pointed out, "would be to wait through the summer for industry settlement of which he would have no voice. Final determination is historically made by the big carbon steel companies."

"The economic, political and social problems of these companies are far different than those of a specialty producer like Crucible. Even our basic raw materials—nickel, chrome, and stainless scrap—are different."

"The USW has bargained with us in good faith," said the Crucible chief executive, "and helped to work out a compromise which will provide some increase in pay now in return for a no-strike agreement. When arrived at, we will abide by the industry economic package. We hope that in the future we can continue to bargain and negotiate according to our peculiar local problems."

"We feel confident that our 11,000 employees, 14,000 shareholders, our 6,000 customers and our 9,000 suppliers welcome this progressive action. In fact," Mr. Lobb added, "it stands to benefit everyone but our foreign competition."

New Principals Named

Principals for East Liverpool's three new centralized elementary schools, now being completed in the East End, North Side and LaCrest, were appointed by the board of education Monday night.

Miss Elizabeth Coleman, left, was named principal for the LaCrest School; Mrs. Marie Graham, center, for the North Elementary School, and Mrs. Ruth B. Armstrong for the East Elementary School.

The board approved the appointments as recommended by Supt. Paul Blair.

Blair explained that Wilbur Wolfe, principal at Neville School, will return to a teaching position, since his appointment was for one year. Milton Watson, who has been principal at Horace Mann and Garfield schools, will be a teacher at the high school.

THE THREE new principals will be employed for 10 months of each year at salaries of about $10,560.

Miss Coleman, of 213 E. 4th St., a native of East Liverpool, earned a bachelor degree from Kent State University, studied at Geneva College and received a master's degree from Kent State.

She has been with the city schools since 1925, and has served as principal at Neville, LaCrest, Glenmoor and Pleasant Heights.

Mrs. Armstrong, of Williamsport, a native of Summitville, has a bachelor degree from Kent and a master's degree from Western Reserve University, and has taught in Carroll County, Jefferson County and Columbiana County schools, Wellsville, Euclid and in East Liverpool since 1951.

MRS. GRAHAM, of Broadview Circle, a Greensburg, Pa., area native, has a bachelor degree from Seton Hill

College at Seton Hill, Pa. and a master's degree from the University of Pittsburgh and has studied at Kent and Pitt. She came to East Liverpool in 1954.

She was principal at Klondyke and taught special education, and has been principal at Lincoln and Taft schools. She is married and has a son.

All are members of the state, national, district and local education associations.

The board also granted a two-year contract to Miss Ann Johnston, to continue as principal at Westgate Elementary School at a salary of $10,472.

Questioned last night about the differences in salary of the new teachers and Miss Johnston, Supt. Blair explained the new teachers have the responsibility of organizing and directing the new schools, while Miss Johnston is under the supervision of the Westgate School principal.

cuss proposed "fair housing" legislation. Wilson and Councilman Donald I. Burcham are the other members of the committee.

Council approved a motion by Lowe, head of the rules committee, that Council follow its usual practice of meeting only once monthly during the vacation season from June through August. The meetings will be held the third Monday of each month. Council usually meets twice monthly — on the first and third Mondays.

SOLICITOR J. Michael Kapp suggested a Council investigation because of a bill pending before the General Assembly that would take away the "municipal immunity" against certain claims now held by all Ohio cities. He said if the law is passed the city should consider the possibility of buying insurance to protect itself against liability claims. President Norman Bucher named Lowe, Burcham and Councilman Floyd Murray to investigate.

Councilman Frank Duffy said the sewage department should block the cellar drains of homes in areas where it is flushing out sewage lines with a fire hose. This would prevent water from flooding the cellars of homes, resulting in claims against the city, he said. Willshaw said he will refer the question to the Board of Public Utilities, which administers the water and sewage departments.

Council referred to the claims committee a $38 bill against the city from Anthony Hoodski of Chester Ave., who said his parked car was damaged last Thursday when hit by a fire department squad car. The same committee was given a $343 claim from John Walsh of River Rd., who said his car was damaged Dec. 1, 1967, when it hit an icy rut on the River Rd.

Willshaw asked Council to meet in special session next week to appropriate funds for demolition of buildings on W. 6th St. for expansion of a metered off-street parking lot. Council agreed to meet in recessed session Monday at 7 p. m.

Last night's session opened with invocation by Sample. Councilman Edward Massey was excused from the meeting.

Law On Car Towaway Broadened By Council

Council enacted an ordinance Monday night broadening the provisions of a law which permits police to tow away a car at the owner's expense if it is blocking traffic.

The amended ordinance allows police to order removal of an auto "to the nearest garage or other place of safety" if it is blocking a sidewalk. Previously, the ordinance covered only autos which were blocking traffic "on any street, bridge or causeway or in any tunnel." The law requires the owner to pay towing and storage charges.

Councilman Frank Duffy suggested the law be applied to used car lots which he said sometimes park vehicles on all or part of a sidewalk.

Hearings Due On Road Jobs

LISBON — County commissioners received notice Monday that the state director of highways will hold public hearings on two road projects — Route 344 west of Columbiana and Route 164 at the southern edge of Lisbon.

Arguments for and against the proposed relocation and abandonment of a portion of Route 344 will be heard at 10:30 a. m. May 28 in Columbiana High School auditorium.

The Route 164 hearing will be at 10:30 a. m. June 4 in Council chambers at Lisbon Village Hall.

Both hearings will be advertised in area newspapers and the ads will describe the proposals fully.

The Route 344 relocation, connected with the construction of the Lake Erie — Ohio River Freeway, will be from a point four-tenths of a mile north-east of Kelly Park Rd. to one-tenth of a mile inside the west corporation line of Columbiana — a total distance of 1.2 miles.

Plans are to relocate Route 164 south of Lisbon to eliminate two right-angle turns. The project will begin two-tenths of a mile southwest of the corporation line and extend into town as far as Washington St. — a distance of one-half mile.

Commissioners yesterday authorized payment of $90 to Thomas Porter of St. Clair Township for two ewes and four lambs killed April 2 by stray dogs.

The City of Wellsville was paid $13.50 for destroying 27 stray dogs in April.

The commissioners instructed the county treasurer to invest $250,000 of active funds in short-term treasury bills.

Of approximately 125 major matadors in the history of bullfighting, 42 have been killed in the ring. Belmonte, considered the greatest of them all, was not killed in the ring although he was gored more than 50 times, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Judge Dickson Fines Three Area Motorists

Three drivers were fined and a fourth forfeited a bond in County Judge Barry Dickson's court at East Palestine Monday.

Fined were Jerry Hall, 20, of East Liverpool, $40 and costs for speeding; Norman V. Lawrence, 51, of Toronto, $10 and costs for a stop sign violation, and Lawrence Brewer, 49, of East Liverpool, $10 and costs for improper passing.

Ronald Bushfield of Irondale forfeited a $20 bond for improper passing.

Plans Are Being Speeded For ELHS Prom May 17

Plans are being completed for the annual East Liverpool High School prom May 17 at Virginia Gardens in Chester.

The theme will be "Stairway to the Stars."

Music for the event, which will begin at 8:30, will be provided by Russ Romero and his orchestra from New Castle.

The program will be followed with the traditional Jaycee-sponsored after-prom affair at Westgate auditorium. Highlights at the after-prom party will include carnival booths, set up and operated by high school clubs. Music will be provided by the "The Young Ideas" from Follansbee.

Expenses for the prom will be met from funds realized from this year's candy sales. The after-prom tickets will cost $4.50.

Committees for the prom include: Throne and backdrop, Peggy Hoffman, Steve Pickin, Debbie Sanford and Bruce Blankenship; tables, Loretta DeSarro and Rick Eckles; programs, Dan Cunningham and Tim Ward; favors, Elaine Morgan and David Smith; queen and court selection, George Grant and Susan Nusser; publicity, George Manning; pictures, Tom Chambers and Gretchen Gaston, and after-prom, Sue Hays and Marylee Strub.

Junior Class officers are Tom Godding, president; Rick Eckles, vice president; Nancy Hopman, secretary, and Peggy Hoffmann, treasurer.

Faculty advisers of the class are Joseph Mitchell and Jack Oughton.

Youth, 7, Hospitalized After Running Into Car

A 7-year-old area boy is "satisfactory" today at City Hospital, where he was admitted after running into the side of a car near his home Monday at 8:15 p. m.

Jeffery Scott Smith, son of Richard Smith of the Substation Rd., suffered lacerations of the scalp in the mishap which occurred in front of Robert's Sun-ox station.

Officers of the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said the boy ran from the east side of the street into the side of a northbound car operated by Wayne M. Christen, 19, of the Y. and O. Rd.

A Wellsville man damaged his 1963 station wagon when he swerved to avoid a rabbit on Route 267, about two miles south of Route 30 Monday at 5 a. m.

James Robert Raines, 53, of 807 Washington Ave., told officers he veered left to avoid the animal and his station wagon went off the road and flipped onto its top.

A 1961 station wagon collided with a parked tractor-trailer yesterday at 3:35 p. m. after it went out of control.

Officers said the station wagon, operated by Daniel A. Forkel, 17, of Salem, westbound on County Rd. 444, went off the south side of the road, came back onto the roadway, slid sideways back off the south side and crashed into the tractor-trailer parked in a private parking lot.

Jack R. Bowser, 46, of Lisbon Rd. 1, was operator of the truck, officers said.

Forkel was cited by the patrol for excessive speed for conditions.

No one knows exactly where the cornerstones of the White House, Capitol, Treasury and Washington Monument are.

Reporter Files Suit In Alleged Beating

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A reporter for the Columbus Citizen-Journal, Robert N. MacVicar, filed a $300,000 damage suit Monday in federal court, alleging he was beaten by police while on an assignment.

The suit names the city of Columbus, Safety Director Fred Simon, and three policemen as defendants. It contends that the reporter was beaten and sprayed with tear gas by policemen while covering a demonstration at Ohio State University last Oct. 15.

World's deepest producing well and the world's deepest dry hole both are in Pecos County, Tex.

Written Tests Under Way For Sunday's 'Road-e-o'

Preliminary phases are under way in the annual Jaycee safe driving auto Road-E-O for area high school students.

The tests in driving skills will be held next Sunday at 1 p. m. at the Westgate School parking lot, supervised and judged by area law enforcement officers.

East Liverpool student entrants took written tests at 11 Monday morning in Memorial Auditorium. Beaver Local High School entrants will take the test Friday noon at their school. The date has not been determined for the tests for Oak Glen High School entrants.

Applications and written tests must be completed before the driving skill exams, the Jaycees said. Applications are available at the high schools and from Arb Motors on Pennsylvania Ave.

The annual event is open to any licensed male or female driver in either a public or a parochial high school. They must not have passed their 19th birthdays before Aug. 1 and must not be married until after the national finals in August.

Applicants may not have a pending charge of a moving traffic violation and must not have been convicted of such a charge for six months prior to the national finals.

In the area event, four trophies will be awarded. They will go to the first - place winner and runnerup in male and female competition. The winners also will have an opportunity to join in the national competition at Cincinnati.

Two $4,000 scholarships will be first prize in the national event, with two $2,000 scholarships for the second - place winners and two $1,000 scholarships in the third-place bracket. Six 1968 model autos also will be awarded for a year to the top six drivers.

Autos for local competition will be provided by Arb Motors and Central Service. Written tests will be given and scored by the Jaycees. Would-be entrants unable to take the written exam at the specified times may contact Police Lt. Paul Blevins at the Westgate lot at noon next Sunday.

PTA Meeting Will Be Held At Massillon

The annual East District Conference of the Ohio Congress of Parents and Teachers, Inc., will be held at the Massillon YMCA Wednesday from 9 a. m. to 3:30 p. m.

Registrations will be taken and coffee will be served until 9:30 a. m., at which time Mrs. Robert M. Hargrove Jr., East District director, will call the meeting to order.

After the welcome by Mrs. James McCune, president of the Massillon PTA Council, greetings will be extended to the delegates by Dr. James H. Fry, superintendent of Massillon City Schools. Guests will be introduced by Mrs. Hargrove and Mrs. Joseph Ware Foster, first vice president of the Ohio Congress of Parents and Teachers, Inc. will present the conference theme: "Fringe Benefits."

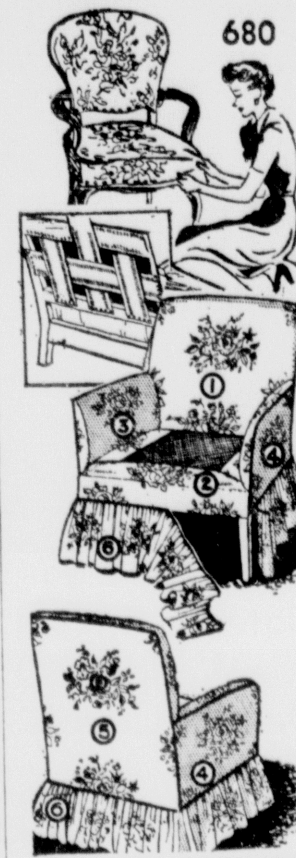

Workshops will begin at 10:30 a. m.

At 2 p. m., new units and councils will be recognized.

At 2:15 p. m., a panel comprised of Mrs. Sherman Dye, Ohio School Boards Association; Mrs. Susan George, a member of the Ohio State Board of Education, and State Sen. Ralph Regula will lead a discussion on "The Impact of Legislation on Education."

The purpose of the conference is "to develop leadership and

New Way Found To Stop Hair Loss, Grow More Hair

HOUSTON, Texas — If you don't suffer from male pattern baldness, you can now stop your hair loss... and grow more hair.

For years "they said it couldn't be done." But now a firm of laboratory consultants has developed a treatment for both men and women, that is not only stopping hair loss... but is really growing hair!

They don't even ask you to take their word for it. If they believe that the treatment will help you, they invite you to try it for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself!

Naturally, they would not offer this no-risk trial unless the treatment worked. However, it is impossible to help everyone.

The great majority of cases of excessive hair fall and baldness are the beginning and more fully developed stages of male pattern baldness.

But, if you are not already slick bald, how can you be sure what is actually causing your hair loss? Even if baldness may seem to "run in your family," this is certainly no proof of the cause of YOUR hair loss.

Many conditions can cause hair loss. No matter which one is causing your hair loss, if you wait until you are slick bald and your hair roots are dead, you are beyond help. So, if you still have any hair on top of your head, and would like to stop your hair loss and grow more hair... now is the time to do something about it before it's too late.

Loesch Laboratory Consultants, Inc., will supply you with treatment for 32 days, at their risk, if they believe the treatment will help you. Just send them the information listed below. All inquiries are answered confidentially, by mail and without obligation. Adv.

The Social Notebook

Plans for the mother-daughter banquet May 21 were outlined when the troop committee of the Sunbeams and Girl Guards of the Salvation Army met Monday morning at the citadel.

The event, at the citadel, will feature Mrs. Capt. Paul Satterlee of the Steubenville Corps as the speaker. She also will conduct an enrollment service.

Mrs. Capt. Richard Bosh led the opening prayer and Mrs. Ines Wright the closing prayer. Divine service for the Sunbeams and Guards will be held May 26 at the citadel.

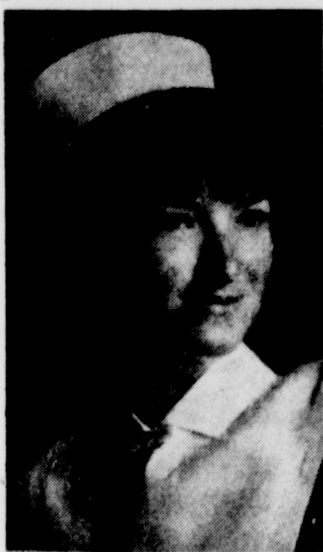

The WSCS of the Anderson Methodist Church held a banquet Friday night in the social rooms, followed with a mother's day program under the direction of Mrs. Evelyn Steele and Mrs. Elsie Justice. Forty-two were present.

A mock fashion show was featured. The participants included Penny Linger, Vickie Sossack, Elaine Durbin, Ellen Harvey, Susan Stiez, Judy Gallagher, Judy Johnston, Nancy Hall, Carol Adkins and Mrs. Steele.

Miss Linger gave a toast to the mothers and Mrs. Polly Linger a toast to the daughters. Appropriate readings were given by Mrs. Pearl Murray and Mrs. May Hall.

Awards were presented Mrs. Clyde Russell, oldest mother; Mrs. Chryl Gallagher, youngest mother; Mrs. Nettie Prince, mother with three daughters present; Miss Robin Gallagher, youngest daughter, and Mrs. Lena Stevenson, oldest kindergarten teacher.

The next regular meeting will be May 20 at the church, with Mrs. May Hall hostess.

BARBARA WILSON
Engagement Announced.

Date To Be Set For Wedding Of District Couple

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Wilson of 811 2nd Ave., New Cumberland, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Barbara Lynn Wilson, to Frank C. Manypenny, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel F. Manypenny of 612 Louisiana Ave., Chester.

Miss Wilson, graduated in 1966 from Oak Glen High School, is a junior in the School of Nursing at Montifiore Hospital, Pittsburgh. She is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Reynolds of New Cumberland.

Manypenny, also graduated from the high school in 1966, attended Marshall University, Huntington, W. Va. He is an employee of the Weirton Steel Co. and is scheduled to enter the Marine Corps in the fall. No wedding date has been set.

Church Thursday night at Meade's Restaurant.

The tables were decorated with multi-colored dolls and lilacs. Mrs. Eileen Bush welcomed the daughters and Miriam Bush the mothers.

Mrs. Mary McCullough of East Liverpool gave a talk on "gravestone rubbing." Mrs. Janet O'Hara was in charge of the banquet.

Officers will be elected when Court Crotty 1419, Catholic Daughters of America, meets Wednesday night at 8 in the Immaculate Conception School.

Mrs. Margaret Gualtier, grand regent, will preside.

The social committee includes Miss Theresa Soldano, Mrs. Mary Metz and Mrs. Mary DiCello.

Tonda Jean Call Marries W. R. Bratt In Church Rite

Two Wellsville residents, Miss Tonda Jean Call, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Call of 221 Wells Ave., and William R. Bratt, son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Bratt of 319 Wells Ave., were united in marriage April 27 at the Wellsville First Methodist Church.

The Rev. Roger Kennedy officiated for the ceremony before an altar background of ferns and candelabra. Tony DiCello presented a half-hour recital of organ music and Miss Joyce Westlake was soloist.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a full-length gown of Chantilly lace fashioned with a fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and long pointed sleeves. The bouffant skirt was formed of tiers with a brush train.

Her butterfly veil of English illusion was held in place by a crown of pearls and sequins. She carried a cascade bouquet of white sweetheart roses and white daisies. The traditions were observed.

For traveling, the bride wore a gold butte knit suit with navy blue accessories, accented with a corsage of white daisies.

Mrs. Mary Kay Groom, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. She wore an A-line gown of mint green featuring an empire bodice. A floral crown and mint green veil completed her costume.

Bridesmaids were Miss Mary McWilliams of East Liverpool and Miss Pam Thrasher of Wellsville. Their pale yellow gowns were designed on the same line as the gown worn by the matron of honor. Their headpieces matched their ensembles. All the attendants carried cascade bouquets of yellow sweetheart roses and yellow daisies.

Jani Lorenda Sabbato of Wellsville, cousin of the bride, and Randi Rudelle Call of Columbus, niece of the bride, were flower girls. Their mint green gowns, styled by Mrs. Frank Johnson, were designed similar to that worn by the matron of honor. They carried white ribbon baskets of yellow roses and daisies.

The mother of the bride was attired in a blue butte knit coat and dress ensemble with matching accessories and she wore a corsage of white orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige lace coat and dress ensemble with spring green accessories and a white orchid corsage. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Martha Long, wore a blue jacket and dress ensemble accented with a white orchid corsage.

Robert J. Bratt, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Tom Koontz and Jerry Hughes, cousin of the bridegroom, all of Wellsville.

A RECEPTION for 225 followed in the social rooms where Miss Lin Thrasher registered guests. The buffet table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake decorated with yellow roses and wedding bells and flanked with lighted yellow tapers in crystal holders. Aides were members of the Golden Reapers Class of the church.

The bride is a 1967 graduate of Wellsville High School. Her husband was graduated from the high school in 1964. The bride is employed at Bloor's Pharmacy in Wellsville and the bridegroom, who served two years in the Army, is a carpenter.

Following a honeymoon to Niagara Falls, the newlyweds will reside in a newly-purchased mobile home on Wells Ave.

The bridegroom's parents entertained for the rehearsal dinner, where members of the wedding party were given gifts by the bridal couple.

Adelines Place Fourth In 'Sing' By 32 Choruses

The East Liverpool Chapter of Sweet Adelines, Inc., placed fourth in the competition of 32 choruses at the annual convention over the weekend at the Statler Hilton Hotel in Cleveland, where more than 1,000 members and guests were registered.

The other winning choruses of Region 16 were Toronto, Canada, first; Scarborough, Ontario, Canada, second, and Rochester, N. Y., third.

Mrs. Nancy Beaver directed the local group, which finished just 36 points behind the winning chorus and placed higher than all the groups in the categories of showmanship and precision.

The Heathertones quartet, members of the local chapter, sang during the Saturday night show.

The 1969 competition will be held at Toronto.

Former Resident Will Get Degree

Miss Karen Ward, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Harger of 1062 St. George St., will be graduated from Baldwin - Wallace College with a B.A. degree in physical education on June 9.

Her sister, Beth Ward, will be graduated from Madison Memorial High School June 2 with honors and will attend Bowling Green University in the fall.

Their brother, Gary Ward, was graduated from Florida Atlantic University in December 1967 with a master's degree in counseling and guidance and is teaching at Pompano Beach, Fla. They are children of Mrs. Jean Ward of Madison, Ohio, all former residents of East Liverpool.

Chester School Registration Set

Pre-school registration for the Chester Primary building will be held Thursday at 2 p. m. in the Activity Center, Thayer Allison, principal, has announced.

Mrs. Mary Fluharty, elementary supervisor of Hancock Schools, will discuss the elementary curriculum. Classroom visitation will be held and refreshments served.

Parents are reminded to bring birth certificates and immunization records. Children must attain the age of six years on or before Oct. 31, Allison said. Another pre-school registration will be held later in May.

Olivia E. McCuen Is Wed In Wellsville Ceremonies

Miss Olivia E. McCuen became the bride of Lester Daniel Roach April 27 at 6 p. m. at Lee's Chapel AME Church in Wellsville.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvel B. McCuen of 1036 Anderson Ave., Wellsville. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Roach of 439 Virginia Ave., East Liverpool.

The Rev. C. A. Borgan performed the single-ring ceremony. Baskets and vases of mums, carnations, glads and palms decorated the altar.

Jerome Thornton was organist and Mrs. Charlotte Collins was the soloist, singing the "Lord's Prayer".

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a full-length gown of white satin shirred by lace with a trailing train of satin, also shirred with lace in the form of a heart.

Miss Marlene Jackson, maid of honor, wore a yellow dress of chiffon with half-length sleeves trimmed in lace. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The bridesmaids wore mint green chiffon gowns with half-length sleeves trimmed in lace to match that of the maid of honor. They were Misses Glenda Jackson, Thessa Jackson, Rose Fieldings and Patricia McCuen, all of Wellsville. Bouquets of white carnations with a center of daisies were carried by the bridesmaids. In a Michele White, dressed in white lace, served as flower girl.

Marvin Pack was best man. Henry Roach, Ronnie Roach, Richard Pack and Edward Pack were ushers. Edward Pack Jr. served as ringbearer. The mother of the bride was attired in a beige two-piece outfit with accessories to match. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue lace dress with matching accessories. Their corsages were of white carnations.

A RECEPTION for some 150 guests was held in the social room of the church, with Miss Sherry Lynn Adams and Mariann Carlson registering the guests.

The bride's table was laid in white centered with a tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Katherine Carpenter, Mrs. Barbara Jackson and Mrs. Marcelline Gooch served as hostesses.

The bride was graduated from Wellsville High School in 1966 and from the Atlantic Airlines School in Kansas City, Mo. Her husband is a graduate of East Liverpool High School in 1966 and is employed at the Sheraton Hotel in Columbus, where the newlyweds are residing.

Mrs. Charles McClure

Ninety attended a May Julep Time Ball held Saturday night at the Willows Motel in Industry by the Women's Guild of Presentation Catholic Church.

Guests included Fr. Stephen J. Burdis, pastor of Presentation Church; Fr. Joseph Dascenzo, assistant; Fr. John Sabovich of Donora, former assistant, and Fr. Adelbert Williams and his mother, Mrs. Marie Williams, of St. Christine's Catholic Church in Industry.

Decorations were in a julep theme. Programs were designed by Fr. Dascenzo.

The general committee included Mrs. William Selepec, president, Mrs. Richard Kampian, Mrs. Charles Schmitt Jr., Mrs. Mikita, Mrs. Frank Migliore Jr. and Mrs. Nick Stevenson.

The guild will sponsor a mother-daughter social May 14 at 8 p. m. in Regan Hall.

Church Women Meet
"Human Values in a Technological Society" was the theme when the Midland Area Council of Church Women United held May Fellowship Day Friday at the Ohio View Lutheran Church in Industry. Mrs. Robert Cowan, president, was chairman of the meeting.

A panel discussion moderated by Mrs. George MacLeod included Will T. Leavell, Mrs. John Hoseney, Mrs. Roy McCullum and Mrs. Howard Vaughn as panelists.

The film, "The Detached Americans," was screened. The group reviewed the booklet, "Human Rights in Your Community."

Mrs. Lee Albacker, soloist, was accompanied by Mrs. C. Lloyd Deffenbaugh. A business session and sack luncheon were held. Chairmen were Mrs. Jack Peck, decorations, and Mrs. John Patterson, kitchen.

The annual business meeting will be Oct. 7.

Pageant Reports Leetonia Girl As First Runnerup

Jeannie Lee Gongaware, Leetonia High School senior, was first runnerup in the "Miss Columbiana County Pageant" Saturday night, not Karen Drotleff of Salem as originally reported, the East Liverpool Jaycees said today.

Miss Gongaware, a 5-foot-5 brown-haired band member who plans to attend Heidelberg College, will serve as alternate county representative and attend the "Miss Ohio Pageant" at Sandusky should Sandra Lee Ciotti, 1968 "Miss Columbiana County," be unable to attend.

Miss Drotleff, one of the five finalists, won the evening gown competition.

Auction Planned By South Side's Community Unit

Auction committees were appointed when the South Side Community Civic Group met Monday night.

Mrs. Howard Narry will serve as clerk of a miscellaneous auction Saturday at 1 p. m. at the Hookstown Grange Hall. The luncheon committee includes Mrs. Dick Chambers, Mrs. Freda Ashcroft, Mrs. Raymond Tate and Mrs. Charles B. Wright.

The group measured for dug-outs and discussed completion of the field along Route 168 at Hookstown. The group plans to have the field ready for use by June 1.

The group was established last July to assist the South Side Athletic Club in construction of the field for use by five junior and four senior teams from the area.

'Garbage' On Television

Dear Ann Landers: I'm glad you printed the letter from the New York woman who was appalled at the remark made by a contestant on TV. Since most of the shows are taped, why don't they edit out the vulgarities and offensive material? It seems to me the people who produce these shows are trying to see how much blue material they can use and get away with.

Last week a friend of mine who's a nun was a guest in our home. I decided to turn on the TV for a little entertainment. On that very same show a member of the cast, NOT a contestant, asked the following question: "If you had a little buzzer system inserted in your navel and someone suddenly pushed that button, what would your reaction be?"

How much longer are we going to have garbage dumped into our living rooms?—R.F.G.

Dear R.F.G.: It's up to you and to all the others who don't want the garbage in your living room. I repeat: Write to the network, the local TV station, the sponsor — anyone and everyone connected with the show. Tell them you will not watch their programs. When the ratings drop through the cellar they'll know they no longer can substitute dirt for talent.

Nurses Curse

Dear Ann: I'm a registered nurse who'd like to express a point of view in behalf of those of us who staff hospitals.

I'm not being dramatic when I say we're trained in the tradition of the theater. The show must go on, regardless of bad news from home, our own aches and pains, financial worries, in-law problems — whatever.

Illness does not give a patient the right to be abusive or downright nasty. Physicians, nurses and technicians do not wish to inflict pain or discomfort on patients, but often it's necessary in order to do the tests. Some patients act as if we hurt them purposely for some sadistic reasons.

After spending many years in hospitals, I'm firmly convinced that illness does not alter one's personality. Genuinely nice people remain nice, in spite of pain and misery. The nasty ones who use sickness as an excuse to be mean are fooling no one. — OLD STARCHY.

Dear Old Starchy: One of the principal tests of maturity is the ability to tolerate discomfort and anxiety without taking it out on others. This holds true for the waitress, teacher, salesperson and secretary, as well as the physician, nurse, technician and patient.

Your statement that individuals who staff hospitals are trained in the theater is correct. But Shakespeare's statement was made in the truth when he said: "All the world's a stage. And all the men and women merely players."

Confidentially

To Conservative or Cheap? Why the antics with semantics? He's cheap and, furthermore, he has proved it every Saturday for two months. The cooks in some of the restaurants are pretty good, too. Suggest he give them a chance.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

from eight-tenths of one percent to a full one percent. It will produce about $90,000 more. The city asked the county agency to permit immediate allocation of the anticipated funds. The Budget Commission took the position the funds must actually be in the till before they can be appropriated.

Kapp told Council that Auditor Lawrence J. Zollinger and his assistant, E. Allan McKeever, approached County Auditor Kenneth Bell last week at Lisbon about immediate appropriation of the funds and were refused again. Kapp said he must wait 30 days before filing an appeal at Columbus.

If the state agency acts favorably, the city will be able to allocate the funds by the end of July, rather than waiting until October or November if it follows the procedure suggested by the county, he said.

Midland Church Begins $28,000 Remodeling Job

Presentation Church of Midland has launched a $28,000 remodeling project at the lyceum. Modany Brothers have started demolition of the interior in preparation for pouring a new concrete floor and finishing walls and ceiling.

The work will be completed in five or six weeks. A Cana Conference will be held at Regan Hall and the Church May 19 from 1 to 4:45 p.m. The conference will deal with the husband - wife relationship and will be conducted by Msgr. Seli of the Family Life Center of the Diocese of Pittsburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kolesar of Meadowbrook Estates are co-chairmen. Babysitters will be provided at home or at Presentation School under the supervision of the school nurse.

The Catholic Youth Organization will meet after CCD classes Wednesday. The Catholic Daughters of America will meet tonight at 8 at Regan Hall. A play, "When Women Meet," will be presented.

Mary Jane Wolfe Marries In Ceremony At Wellsville

A Nuptial High Mass united in marriage Miss Mary Jane Wolfe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank K. Wolfe of 1709 Pennsylvania Ave., and Richard Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. Murray of 322 2nd St., Wellsville, April 20 at the Immaculate Conception Church in Wellsville.

Fr. James Cavanaugh performed the double - ring ceremony before an altar banked in lilies, ferns, palms and candelabra.

Tony DiCello presented a half-hour recital of organ music and sang "Now Joined By God," "O Perfect Love" and "Ave Maria," while the bride placed a bouquet of carnations at the altar of the Virgin Mary.

THE BRIDE was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. She wore an empire - styled gown of silk organza and chiffon fashioned with a sheath-like skirt. Her three-quarter-length sleeves of cotton lace woven with satin ribbons highlighted the waltz train that was held in place by a bow. She wore a two - drop pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom.

Her shoulder - length veil of silk illusion was held in place by a cluster of roses and rose petals. She carried a cascade arrangement of carnations and pink sweethearts centered with a detachable orchid.

In observing the traditions, the bride wore a blue garter which belonged to Mrs. Albert Barreuther, sister of the bridegroom; carried a white initial handkerchief which belonged to her aunt, Mrs. Wilbur Jones, and crystal rosaries, a gift from the bride's father. She also had a sixpence in her shoe.

For traveling, the bride chose a sheath gold and white dress with matching coat and wore her bridal orchid.

Miss Valerie Wolfe, maid of honor, was attired in a waltz-length gown of yellow silk and chiffon fashioned with an empire bodice accented with lace and three-quarter-length, bell-shaped sleeves of chiffon edged with lace.

Bridesmaids were Miss Linda McCombs, a cousin of the bride, and Miss Linda Edgell. Their gowns were identical to that of the maid of honor in mint green and pink. Their one-tier, shoulder - length veils of silk illusion were held in place by a was almost certain to win the presidential support of the regular Democratic party machinery in his state.

She took office in January 1967 with the promise that her husband would share in major decisions of the governor's office. Mrs. Wallace nevertheless insisted on a new public health program as the first priority of her administration.

She was especially concerned for the mentally ill, and she visited the state's mental hospital and talked with the patients. Under her guidance, the legislature submitted and the voters approved a $15 million bond issue to build new facilities for the treatment of mental illness.

Her efforts won the annual William Crawford Gorgas award from the Medical Association of the State of Alabama. It was accepted on her behalf by her eldest daughter, Mrs. James Parsons, in Birmingham last month.

Mrs. Parsons, 22, and the other three Wallace children—Peggy, 18; George Wallace Jr., 16; and Janie Lee Wallace, 7—were at their mother's side when she died.

For Janie Lee, it was especially cruel. She had received the best birthday present she could wish for when she reached the age of 7 on April 13—Mrs. Wallace went home after nearly two months in the hospital.

There had been hope, however slender, that the governor might survive. She took short walks around the mansion, even went for a car ride a time or two.

But she took a turn for the worse Sunday night. Doctors said there were symptoms of a recurring abdominal abscess. The first disclosure that Mrs. Wallace had been stricken with cancer came at a Montgomery hospital in January 1966. Doctors said a tumor had been removed from the uterus and "there is no evidence of any remaining malignancy."

But 17 months later, physicians in Montgomery and cancer specialists at Houston, Tex., found a recurrence of cancer, a lemon-size growth in the lower abdominal region. The malignancy developed, the physicians explained, because microscopic cells left after the first operation grew on the external surface of an intestine.

Verdict Due From Jury In City Burglary

LISBON — Two youths testified against Frank B. Schmidt, 39, of 512 Walnut St., East Liverpool, Monday in Common Pleas Court during his trial on a charge of burglary.

George Aronson, defense counsel, began calling witnesses this morning. A verdict is expected today.

James F. Cramer, 19, of 876 Baxter St. and Charles Junior Mercer, 19, of 130 Ravine St., said they and Schmidt broke into the Dan-Dee Bar at Washington St. and Broadway between 3 and 4 a.m. Jan. 13 and took money, whisky, cigarettes and hams.

The loot was loaded into Schmidt's truck and taken to Cramer's house to be divided. Cramer testified he got about $28 as his share of the money and $10 the next day after Frank and Junior sold the liquor—approximately 20 bottles. Frank got the hams, Cramer said.

Mercer is under sentence for armed robbery, burglary and escape from the County Jail and is awaiting transfer to the reformatory at Mansfield.

Cramer was bound over to the April grand jury on a charge of burglary Feb. 28 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Ray Connell of Oakwood Ave. The jury continued the case.

Other witnesses for the state yesterday were Chris Markanton, owner of the bar; Police

3 Transferred To Institutions To Begin Terms

LISBON — A youth and two men were taken to state institutions today by Sheriff Russell J. Van Fossan and Deputy Howard Gray to begin sentences imposed last week in Common Pleas Court.

William L. (Larry) Nesbitt, 19, of 268 W. Washington St., Lisbon, formerly of East Liverpool, went to the reformatory at Mansfield to serve 1 to 25 years for four East Liverpool robberies — the Little Diner (twice), Gilmore's Service Station in Glenmoor and Saltzman's Drugstore in Calcutta.

James T. Martin, 32, of 13 Whittier Court, Poland, and James E. Black, 33, of 2205 Graceland Dr., New Castle, were taken to the penitentiary at Columbus to serve 1 to 5 years for assault with a deadly weapon on Fr. Thomas Beldue of St. Patrick's Church in Leetonia.

Transfers Set In Line With School Study

NEW CUMBERLAND — The transfer of 15 teachers, the majority of whom served in a supervisory capacity or in other related fields, was approved by the Hancock County Board of Education Monday.

The decision by the board to approve the transfers was based on surveys made by the Battelle Memorial Institute of Columbus of the school system.

Battelle had informed the board at an earlier session that a number of the present positions should be eliminated altogether and placed as a part of other functions and that some should be revised with a lesser number of supervisory personnel involved. The transfers were approved on the basis of obtaining a better balance or at the request of the people involved.

It was noted in the Battelle report that the present practice of having coordinators at both the junior and senior high levels was not feasible and should be re-worked into duties to be handled by the assistant superintendent of instruction.

Those being transferred and the present posts they hold follow:

Dominic Amedeo, administrative principal Weir High; Carl Barker, assistant principal Weir Junior High School; Crawford Cameron, director of state and federal programs; John M. Evanchio, principal building Weir High School; Dale Lutton, principal Weir Junior High School; Tami Muhl, principal Marland Heights elementary school; Elaine McAlpine, principal Cove School.

Ruth Morgan, principal building B Weir High; Betty M. Shaw, coordinator junior high schools; Thomas Shields Jr., coordinator senior high schools; James Wares, principal building C Weir High School; Jane Lee Boyd, teacher Marland Heights Elementary School; Wilma DeSantis, teacher Marland Heights Elementary School and Inez Orler, teacher Weirton Heights elementary school.

Dr. Vernon Wyland, assistant superintendent, who will assume the superintendent's post on July 1, asked the board to approve the recommendations.

The board approved the transfers unanimously.

Man Will Be Quizzed In Shooting Of Two

William James Irwin, 23, of 81 Williamson Ave., Youngstown, is being held at the County Jail in Lisbon on an open charge for investigation into a shooting early Saturday near Wellsville.

Ronald Bailey, 20, of 640 Henry Ave., Wellsville, was shot in the stomach and his companion, Pamela Lacey, 19, of McCoy Ave., East Liverpool, was shot in the right hand by someone in a car on 25th St. Heights about 5 a.m.

The two got out of their car to protest the other vehicle blocking a driveway and were shot as the other car pulled away.

Bailey remained in "guarded" condition today at City Hospital and Miss Lacey was reported "good."

The first smoke abatement law was passed in England in 1273, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

William L. (Larry) Nesbitt, 19, of 268 W. Washington St., Lisbon, formerly of East Liverpool, went to the reformatory at Mansfield to serve 1 to 25 years for four East Liverpool robberies — the Little Diner (twice), Gilmore's Service Station in Glenmoor and Saltzman's Drugstore in Calcutta.

James T. Martin, 32, of 13 Whittier Court, Poland, and James E. Black, 33, of 2205 Graceland Dr., New Castle, were taken to the penitentiary at Columbus to serve 1 to 5 years for assault with a deadly weapon on Fr. Thomas Beldue of St. Patrick's Church in Leetonia.

6 Resign Posts

3 Buses Bought By School Board

Awarding of contracts for three new school buses, acceptance of resignations of six employees and approval of use of school property for various community programs were authorized by the East Liverpool Board of Education Monday night.

One request for use of Westgate School auditorium for a wrestling show failed to gain board support.

The Wimmer Motor Sales of East Liverpool was awarded a contract for providing three school bus chassis and the Meyers Equipment Co. of Canfield, suppliers of Carpenter Co. bus bodies, was granted the body contract.

Wimmer bid $4,462 and Meyers $3,594. The O. S. Hill Co. of East Liverpool bid $4,544 on the chassis. Meyers was the only body bid received.

Supt. Paul Blair pointed out the state will provide 61 per cent payment of the total cost of the buses.

THE BOARD accepted the resignations of Clifford Lynch, high school principal for two years; Denzil Parsche, high school industrial arts teacher, and Mrs. Doris Dustman, Miss Delores Palmer and Mrs. Cynthia Brown, elementary instructors, and Hal Emerson, a custodian, who plans to retire May 14. Frank Moss, high school instructor, resigned his post as assistant football coach.

James Render was granted a year's leave to study for a master's degree at West Virginia University.

An application for the use of the Westgate School auditorium by the East Liverpool Sports Promotion Co., headed by Paul Zehnder, failed to receive board approval when a motion to grant the rental did not receive a second.

Zehnder had sought use of the auditorium for a professional wrestling show at a community program rental of $75. A motion was made to permit the use at a commercial rental of $150, but no second followed.

RENTALS granted included a Catholic School Music Festival at Westgate School Auditorium May 13-14; a Columbiana County Youth for Christ Rally at Westgate June 8, and a Musicians Local 172 concert band rehearsal in a practice room at Westgate.

The board granted a high school diploma to Robert Patrick Pearson, who completed requirements and approved a summer training program for school bus drivers.

Guy Digman, Richard Sanford and Sam Weber, Liverpool Township trustees, discussed with the board the possibility of the board participating in a surfacing program on Boring Lane. A planned sewer project on Boring Lane was also discussed and the trustees were told the contractor had the responsibility of restoring the street to good condition when the sewer was installed. Trustees said they would not issue a permit for the work until they were satisfied this would be done properly.

BEN WEBER spoke concerning the Little League Football program, and explained which comprised of representatives of various civic and school groups from throughout the district.

The board formally accepted the resignation of Mrs. Jessie Dunlop from the board. She plans to accept a post in Hawaii. Appointment of a fifth member of the board to replace her is expected soon.

Groups Set Plans For Horse Show

The combined committees of the Gypsy Glen Riding Club and the Beaver Rotary Club will meet Thursday night to plan for the annual horse show at Brady's Run Park June 21-23.

Judges have been named by the Riding Club. Griffith A. Stringfield of Philadelphia will judge the schooled English classes and E. M. (Jack) Timmons of Medina, N. Y., will judge the Western classes. James LaHood of Wheeling will be ringmaster.

John A. Wilson, horse show chairman, reported that entry blanks and show programs have been mailed to prospective exhibitors.

Jerry Newton, reported solicitations are now being made for ads and sponsorships. The event, sponsored by the Beaver Rotary Club, is a benefit for the Beaver County Society for Crippled Children.

Sheriff Urges Check On Itinerant Roofers

LISBON — Itinerant roof repairs are in Columbiana County again, Sheriff Russell J. Van Fossan warned residents this morning.

He said past experience with the traveling roof fixers is that they contact residents, usually older people, and convince them their roof needs repair. "They charge them a ridiculous price," he added.

People approached by men asking for roof work should make sure the workmen are reliable before they agree, Van Fossan said. "If they call the sheriff's office, we'll check and advise them," he added.

UMW District Files Own Action On Indebtedness

Local representatives of District 50 of the United Mine Workers of America received word today that the district has filed an answer and counterclaim to the suit by the UMW which seeks to recover an alleged $8 million indebtedness from the district.

Local 13656, representing employees of the Ohio Valley Gas Co., is a party of District 50.

District officials deny the existence of the indebtedness. They also claim a UMW agent operated and managed the district "not in the interests of the membership, but with the deliberate intent and purpose of keeping the district financially indebted to, and thus under the control and dictate of the Mine Workers."

In filing a counterclaim, District 50 asked the court for an accounting of funds and declared the district is entitled to a portion of the overall assets of the Mine Workers, estimated at $250 million.

Attorneys also claim District 50 was expelled from the UMW contrary to law and in bad faith for the purpose of "getting rid of a union which dared to assert its legal and equitable rights against the autocratic domination of the international officers of the UMW."

Kindergarten Study Will Continue

Can a public school kindergarten program be initiated next September in East Liverpool?

Yes, claims a group of city residents who say $5,000 for each teacher and $2,435 for each class plus transportation funds are available under the state foundation.

Not so, indicate school administrators, who say the foundation doesn't actually provide enough to cover the full costs, that $10,000 to $18,000 more in local money would be required, and the proposed 30 students to one teacher ratio is too large.

But the citizens' group which attended Monday night's meeting of the board of education to present its case anew, and Assistant Supt. of Schools Carl Pelini are scheduled to meet to study the anticipated costs and the state money available.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bentley of Hampton Court and Mrs. Robert Gessford of Vine St., who had appeared before the board April 15 on the kindergarten issue, again were the principal spokesmen.

THE BOARD, which moved its meeting from Supt. Paul Blair's office to the high school library because of the number of people attending—27—agreed tentatively to consider the group's offer to organize, register and provide aides if a kindergarten program could be started—even if in rented or donated rooms. The board said only LaCroft School would be made available under the public school kindergarten should the program be started.

Mrs. Bentley reported John Parsons, director of school finances of the Ohio Department of Education, had advised her the state funds for kindergartens in East Liverpool "should be ample," and that the money would be available for use this year.

She said Parsons assured her the state does not discourage the start of kindergartens because of the drain on state funds as was indicated by Blair at the previous meeting.

BLAIR SAID he indicated the previous stand of state officials was against kindergartens because of the imbalance of excess teacher units in the city district, believing the program forced operations "on a shoestring."

Mrs. Bentley offered the board a group which would organize a kindergarten, provide supplies, "do anything" to insure the program.

Her husband outlined his understanding of the state foundation program, including salaries and operating expenses. He said he hoped the board's reluctance to proceed with the kindergarten plan was not to tie it in with any proposed tax levy.

Pelini said he believed the ratio of 30 students to one teacher as provided in the state formula was too large. Further, he said, the state funds do not meet the actual salary needs under the city schedule.

"The state pays $5,000 for an instructor with a bachelor degree, but our schedule calls for $5,320, including retirement and other benefits. It would cost us $10,000 to $18,000 of local funds to start the program, and the money is not available."

Pelini estimated six teachers would be required for 300 youngsters. "A larger ratio would be too much. We should be striving for quality education, not quantity, and please understand I am not against kindergartens."

MRS. BENTLEY asked, "What about the other districts which have kindergartens?" Pelini answered, "I don't know what other schools are doing."

As the request of the group for information on his cost estimates for the program, Pelini offered to meet with them.

Asked if the board would consider a program if sites could be obtained to hold classes and if the committee would provide the organization structure, board members said they would.

Mrs. Gessford offered an apology for quoting Zigmunt Rataczak, state coordinator, on transportation funding at the previous meeting, saying rather than referring to him she should have quoted his office. But she pointed out her information was correct.

Blair explained he had based his understanding of the funding on a 1967 regulation, but since had learned that the state would provide transportation in the morning and afternoon for kindergarten pupils. "If I have offended anyone, I apologize," he said.

It was agreed the group and Pelini meet to discuss cost estimates, the foundation program, the estimates of Parsons and to report to the board later.

Pvt. John Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Haines of E. Chestnut St., is spending a week's leave with his parents. He will return to Ft. Dix, N.J., before leaving for Germany.

Mrs. Ora Coen of W. Washington St. has returned from a visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall and family of Rustic Hills, Medina.

Mrs. Bessie Cullison of W. Washington St. was a house guest last week of Mrs. Grace Hoff of W. 4th St., East Liverpool.

Annual Meeting Set By Cemetery Group

The annual meeting of the members and trustees of the Riverview Cemetery Association will be held June 4 at 7 p. m. at the Cemetery Chapel.

The agenda includes the election of members, trustees and officers and other business.

J. D. Thompson is president and William H. Vodrey Jr. is secretary. M. L. Stenger is cemetery superintendent.

Trial List Cut By 4 Cases In Lisbon Action

LISBON — Prosecuting Atty. J. Warren Bettis marked four cases off the trial list Monday after developments in Common Pleas Court.

Two defendants pleaded guilty and an East Liverpool man and wife charged with assault with a dangerous weapon on each other said they are reconciled, leaving Bettis no choice but to ask for a dismissal of the indictments.

Jerry Johnson, 24, of Pine Lake Rd., Salem RD 1, and Clarence F. Shoemaker III, 21, of 346 New Garden St., Salem, admitted the theft of a neon sign worth over $100 March 1 from Jackson's Restaurant in Salem. Indicted secretly, they were arraigned yesterday before Judge Joel H. Sharp.

The men asked for probation. Judge Sharp ordered a pre-sentence investigation and report and released them on their own recognizance.

Joseph J. (Jack) Reese, 37, of Route 170, and his wife, Dolores, 37, of the Bell School Rd., told the court they are reconciled and will not testify against each other.

At the prosecutor's request, Judge Sharp nolleed or dismissed the indictments. Reese had charged his wife with shooting him in the arm with a pistol Jan. 3 at her home. She charged him with assaulting her with a knife Jan. 17.

The grand jury also studied Mrs. Reese's complaint that Reese smashed the windshield of her car. No indictment was returned.

Films Will Highlight Meeting Of Realtors

SALEM — Two films from the National Association of Real Estate Boards will highlight the program during the Columbiana County Board of Realtors dinner meeting at 6:30 p. m. next Tuesday at the Timberlans on E. Pershing St.

Clyde M. Tschantz of Lisbon, secretary, said the films are titled "Qualifying the Buyer" and "Showing Property and Obtaining the Offer." They are a followup to two NAREB movies shown at the April meeting.

MOM'S
GOT A REPUTATION
SINCE SHE GOT HER NEW FLAME.

She has a reputation as one of the best cooks in the neighborhood. And she owes it all to her handsome, easy-going new flame—a modern Gas range.

Mom, the chef, is always dropping names like Burner-with-a-Brain, and Oven-with-a-Mind and automatic rotisserie. And names like broiled filet en crouste, spinach soufflé, quiche Lorraine and ham mousse.

In fact, Mom's something of a show-off with her "Programmed Gas Cooking." She just puts the food into the oven, sets the time and temperature, and then goes about other business with studied indifference toward her cooking. She can afford a great show of confidence because her Gas oven will automatically stop cooking at precisely the correct moment and keep her dinner piping hot, without overcooking or drying out, until everyone is ready to eat.

Needless to say, the whole family is happy with Mom's new flame. And Mom is happy with her new reputation.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Stage A Jewelry Swap

DEAR GALs: Let's all make a splash on Broadway.

We know we can't but I will tell you how to give yourself that feeling

As soon as you finish reading this, put the paper down and go dump your whole costume jewelry drawer on the kitchen table.

Pick out your favorite pieces and put them back in the drawer. The pieces you haven't worn in ages . . . just leave on the table.

I'll bet you a buffalo nickel you'll end up with half of what's been laying in that drawer for the last ten years.

I just did this and you'd be surprised what I got rid of. Some of it was too good to throw away. So my teenage daughter, one of her friends, and a neighbor picked out pieces they liked.

Now gals, your neighbor probably has some jewelry, too, that is just cluttering up her drawer. So why not trade?

Leave it on the table so your neighbor and friends will see it. Always remember that one woman's "castoffs" may be her neighbor's gold mine. That's why they put ads in the paper and have garage sales.

So what's wrong with trading with your neighbors, or advertising it in your local newspaper and getting rid of that stuff?

Sure will make your house keeping easier.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I've found the nicest way to carry deviled eggs to a picnic or party. I dye a papier-mache egg carton in water to which a few drops of cake coloring has been added and let it dry. Then I put wax paper in each little cup and place my eggs in it.

I cover the top of the carton with adhesive-backed paper. This makes an attractive container and when I arrive at my destination the eggs are in fine shape.

They can be served right in the box, too.

MRS. VINEA BYARS.

DEAR HELOISE: Here is an idea I got the other day while I watched a friend try to teach her little boy how to dress himself.

Why not make a book for your particular child to learn from? On cloth pages, put a zipper, button and buttonhole, hook and eye, snaps, a buckle, shoe laces, etc.

I mentioned it to my friend and she simply adored it. She made one for her son and he has quite a time enjoying it and getting educated at the same time.

I am now making one for my little girl — even if she is only nine months old!

MOMMY LINDA.

DEAR HELOISE: For ceramic tile that gets dark in the cracks. I use white shoe polish. I just apply it with the applicator, let it stand for 24 hours and use a damp sponge and a dry cloth to remove excess from the tile the next day.

This really works and is much easier than painting with a small brush. It may require two or three coats, but then it only needs repeating about twice a year.

A.D. DEAR HELOISE: Our beds and sofa are so low that my vacuum cleaner cannot go under them.

So I cut large plastic mats or runners to fit, and placed them under the beds and sofa where I cannot reach with the sweeper. Once a week I just pull out the plastic and wipe it with a damp cloth.

Saves me pulling and pushing heavy furniture around to clean under.

MRS. W. D. ROOT.

Old shower curtains are also great for this.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Did you ever drop a bobby pin or part of an earring down the drain of the bathroom basin and had to remove the goose-necked trap to get it out?

Well, I bought a magnet shaped like a pencil, tied it to a string and lowered it into the basin drain. Presto, up came the item.

MRS. ALFRED TENTINDO.

Traffic Change Made At Rogers As Safety Move

ROGERS —Establishment of one-way traffic north on Highland Ave. was approved by Council Monday night.

Council agreed to make the street one-way to Church St. following complaints of residents of motorists' speeding and endangering children.

Council also ordered legislation prepared granting a wage increase for street laborers. Donald Elliott, solicitor, and Mrs. Maine Hall, clerk, will confer on the estimate of the pay boost.

It was announced cleanup days have been completed. Bills paid included $200 for slag, $52 for repair of the village truck and $252 for general expenses.

Council President Glenn Baker presided until Mayor Glenn Rhodes arrived. The next meeting will be June 3.

Coach To Speak At West Beaver Sports Banquet

Plans have been completed for the Western Beaver All-Sports banquet to be held Thursday at 6 p. m. in the high school cafeteria.

Sponsored jointly by the school and the Western Beaver Athletic Boosters Club, the event will feature as guest speaker Charles Klausung, head football coach at Indiana (Pa.) University.

Letters, jackets, blankets and trophies will be awarded by the coaches. The cheerleaders also will be honored.

ROYAL PAIR. Margaret Rush was crowned queen and Steve Zubay, king, at the annual East Liverpool High School band dinner and dance Saturday night at the Country Club. Some 200 attended the event sponsored by the Band Mothers. Gifts were presented to the seniors.

Lancaster Teachers, Board Reach Accord

LANCASTER, Ohio (AP) — Representatives of the Lancaster Classroom Teachers Association and the board of education announced agreement Monday in a dispute that led to a teachers' walkout last fall.

The major items of the agreement were formal recognition by the board of the LCTA and pay adjustments, depending on the fate of a 4-mill levy on today's ballot for teachers' salaries. LCTA members will vote on the agreement Wednesday.

Knight Newspapers Honored

Pulitzer Prize In Fiction For '68 Awarded Styron

NEW YORK (AP) — The 1968 Pulitzer Prize for fiction has been awarded to William Styron's controversial novel, "The Confessions of Nat Turner," which was based on an 1831 Negro slave revolt.

John S. Knight, and staff members of two of his newspapers were honored Monday with three separate Pulitzer Prizes for journalistic excellence—a triple triumph unique in the 52-year history of the awards.

Knight, editorial director of the Knight Newspapers, won one for distinguished editorial writing, Eugene Gray Payne of Knight's Charlotte, N.C., Observer, was named the outstanding editorial cartoonist of 1967.

The staff of Knight's Detroit Free Press, which has been shut down since last November in a labor dispute, was cited for local reporting of the 1967 Detroit riots and their causes.

For the fourth time in the past six years, no award was given for drama.

The Pulitzer Prize for meritorious public service was won by the Riverside, Calif., Press-Enterprise for its expose of corruption in the courts in connection with the handling of property and estates of an Indian tribe in California.

George F. Kennan, former U.S. ambassador to the Soviet Union, became a two-time prize winner. He received the 1968 award for biography for "Memoirs 1925-1950." In 1957 he won in the history category.

President Grayson Kirk of Columbia University announced 14 prizes as awarded by the board of trustees based on recommendations by the Advisory Board on Pulitzer Prizes, compared mainly of newspaper executives.

The prizes were established in the will of the late Joseph Pulitzer, who died in 1911, and were first presented in 1917. Pulitzer founded the St. Louis Post-Dispatch and published the old New York World.

Individual prize winners in journalism and the arts receive $1,000 each, with an equal sum to those who share an award. In the case of the staff award to the Detroit Free Press, the $1,000 will be sent to Managing Editor Frank Angelo for disposition by the staff.

The meritorious service award in journalism is a gold medal.

The award for a straight news photograph went to Rocco Morabito of the Jacksonville, Fla., Journal. His picture of an unconscious utility lineman being revived by mouth-to-mouth resuscitation was captioned, "The Kiss of Life."

Feature news photography was established as a separate category for the first time this year and the prize was won by Toshio Sakai of Junited Press International. His Vietnam war combat photograph, "Dreams of Better Times" showed a weary American soldier asleep in the rain while a buddy kept watch.

The national reporting prize was awarded jointly to Howard James of the Christian Science Monitor for a series of articles on "Crisis in the Courts" and to Nathan "Nick" Kotz of the Des Moines Register.

Kotz was cited for his "reporting of unsanitary conditions in many meat packing plants, which helped insure the passage of Federal Wholesome Meat Act of 1967."

The prize for International Reporting was awarded to Alfred Friendly of the Washington Post for his coverage of the Middle East war in 1967.

J. Anthony Lukas of the New York Times won the prize for local investigative reporting for his account of the life and murder of Linda Fitzpatrick. She was slain with her hippie boyfriend in an East Village tenement boiler room in New York.

In the arts and letters, Will Durant and his wife, Ariel, won the general nonfiction prize with "Rousseau and Revolution." It is the 10th and concluding volume of "The Story of Civilization" series.

The history award went to Bernard Bailyn for his "The Ideological Origins of the American Revolution." He has written extensively on American history.

The poetry prize went to Anthony Hecht for "The Hard Hours," his fourth work. His first volume of poems was published in 1954.

George Crumb received the music prize for his orchestral suite, "Echoes of Time and the River," performed for the first time May 26, 1967 by the Chicago Symphony Orchestra.

Samuel Gompers, the American labor leader, was born in London.

Hearing Set May 16

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—A preliminary hearing has been set May 16 for Robert Korn, 39, Miamisburg, who was arraigned Monday for first-degree murder in the shotgun slaying of his wife Claudine, 35, last Friday. Korn entered no plea to the charge.

3 Lieutenant Jobs Created

Council gave approval Monday night to legislation establishing three new lieutenants' posts in the fire department so that each of the outlying stations will have an officer in charge.

Council also enacted legislation providing a $470-a-month salary for the lieutenants, $13 more than the scale for a rank-and-file fireman. The overall size of the fire department will remain at 31. Promotion of three to lieutenant's rank will cut the number of rank-and-file firemen from 27 to 24.

Chief Alfred VanDyne recommended creation of the new ranks a few weeks ago to assure that an officer would be in charge of the outlying stations in East End, Pleasant Heights and North Side. The promotions will be determined by a Civil Service examination. In other action affecting the fire department, Council appropriated an additional $800 to cover a contract for re-roofing of Central Station. The supplemental appropriation was requested by the administration to be added to funds previously allocated.

Council also approved legislation officially establishing the salary of Planning Coordinator Don Eckert at $8,000 a year and allowing him up to $4,000 for expenses, such as travel.

Legislation was approved to pay two claims against the city. The resolutions provide these payments: $15 to Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Maola of 525 Wedgewood St. for damage to their property in "alleged improper flushing of a sanitary sewer by sewer department employees" and $303 to Everett Switzer of Louisville, Ohio, whose vehicle was involved in a collision with a street department truck April 2.

Hospital Treats Boy Hurt In Fall And Five Others

A Chester child hurt in a fall against a piano bench at school was treated Monday at City Hospital, along with five others.

Dennis Huff, son of Jack Huff of 540 Indiana Ave., suffered a laceration of the right cheek in the fall at kindergarten.

James Tridico of 647 Carolina Ave., Chester, an employee of the J. C. Penney Co., a laceration of the left ring finger at work; Frankie Brinkley, son of Marvin Brinkley of 406-A Grant St., Newell, an injury of the left eye area on a rock.

Roads Are Scraped

SUMMITVILLE — Forrest Thompson reported slag roads have been scraped and frost damage to the blacktopped roads is being repaired during the Franklin Township Trustees meeting Saturday in the Township hall. The trustees paid bills totaling $744. The next meeting will be May 18 at 2 p.m.

Honored At Chester

'Loyalty' Queen

Mrs. Wilma Williams ruled as Loyalty Day queen during a program sponsored by Burge-Casto Post 6450 of Chester Saturday night, with 200 attending.

Mrs. Williams is shown receiving the crown from last year's queen, Mrs. Judy Lewis.

William Glover, post commander, discussed Loyalty Day and introduced Charles W. Morris, post Loyalty Day chairman.

Glover and Morris then presented flags to the Chester Junior High School, Oak Glen

High School, the city of Chester, Chester City Park and the Newell Methodist Church.

The Grant District Burial Group was presented with a citation for its work on Loyalty Day. The group conducted a flag-raising ceremony at the post home Saturday morning.

Citations also were presented Alvin Fineman of Chester for his contribution in the promotion of Loyalty Day and to Robert Gray, who broadcast the "Chester Hour" for radio station WOHL.

Applications Set On Student Loans By Medical Unit

Applications for student loans are being accepted by the Columbiana County Medical Society.

Dr. J. Fraser Jackson of East Liverpool, president, said "the purpose of the foundation shall be to provide counsel and financial assistance for serving students who have been accepted at any medical school approved by the American Medical Association and high school graduates who are entering any allied fields of medicine who are employed by hospitals in fields such as nursing, practical nursing, physiotherapy, occupational therapy, medical technicians, X-ray technicians, hospital dietitians or any other technical personnel employed by the hospital."

The financial assistance will be in the form of loans with provisions for interest and repayment as approved by the Board of Trustees. "It is intended that the payment of interest or repayment of principal shall not be required until the recipient has completed or discontinued his training," Dr. Jackson explained.

Scholastic standing shall not be the only primary requisite in determining the eligibility of the student for assistance. Character, sincerity or purpose, real financial need and potential future worth of the applicant to society shall be given proper consideration.

Names may be submitted to Mrs. Gilson R. Koenreich, Executive Secretary, Columbiana County Medical Society, 193 Park Ave., Salem, Ohio.

Firemen To Advance Plans For Field Day

Plans for the field day in August will be advanced when the Mahoning Valley Firemen's Association meets Tuesday at the Bazzetta department.

Carbon monoxide gas also will be discussed.

Several Columbiana County groups are affiliated with the association.

56 Years On Capitol Hill

Sen. Hayden, 90, Says He Won't Seek New Term

WASHINGTON (AP) — "We're both on the brink of new careers," the President said to the senator at his side. "I know there's a need for teachers so I'm going back of where I began. But I wonder if Carl has the market for frontier sheriffs."

The audience of 500 laughed, loudly. Carl Hayden smiled, a little ruefully, and Lyndon Johnson returned the same smile.

"They are fellow Southwesterners, fellow Democrats and friends."

But at that moment, there was something more: The understanding and sadness between two long-time politicians stepping voluntarily from public office.

Minutes before, Hayden, 90, had announced he would not seek re-election to the Senate from Arizona. After serving on Capitol Hill for 56 years and 78 days—beginning on the day Arizona was admitted to the Union—it was not an easy thing to say.

Hayden is not the only Congress member retiring after this year. With him will go Sens. Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky., Frank Carlson, R-Kan., Bourke B. Hickenlooper, R-Iowa, George Smathers, D-Fla., and Reps. Charles A. Halleck, R-Ind., and A. S. Herlong Jr., D-Fla.

Hayden, who leaves Congress as chairman of the powerful Senate Appropriations Committee, made his announcement by reading a two-page mimeographed statement.

He managed the first page without faltering, speaking in a strong, loud voice. He cheerfully recalled his days as sheriff of Arizona's untamed Maricopa County.

He was strong in his praise of his administrative assistant, Roy Elson, as he endorsed Elson to succeed him. Elson, who has indicated he would seek the post, said he planned to confer today in Arizona with Hayden's political allies.

Then came the hard part.

"It is time now for a new building crew to report," said Hayden, stumbling over the words, "so I have decided to retire from office at the close of my term this year."

"I would like to tell the people of Arizona how deeply grateful I am for..." he faltered again.

"To my senatorial and congressional colleagues here today, may I say it has been my privilege and honor to serve with you. To my friends and supporters, I can only say, 'Thank you...'"

"And then, in tears: 'There is a time for war, and a time for peace, a time to keep, and a time to cast away, a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to stand, and a time to step aside.'"

"I thank you."

When the standing ovation at the end of his speech died away, Hayden put up his hands and announced: "That's all."

But it was not quite all.

The President was on his way. Johnson was introduced to Elson, and in his remarks to the crowd, the President warned Elson offhandedly that he has his work cut out for him, even if he gets the state's Democratic nomination. Republican Barry Goldwater is seeking the Senate seat, and so far he has no opposition for the GOP nomination.

Branch College Offers Courses

The Hancock County branch of West Liberty State College will conduct a nine-week evening summer program beginning with pre-registration activities June 10 and terminating with final examinations Aug. 18.

All classes will be held on the branch college campus at Weir High School.

Courses will be offered in the areas of accounting, art, biology, business, chemistry, economics, education, English, history, mathematics, music, political science, sociology and speech.

Courses have been scheduled in the evening in order to accommodate employed persons and students from other institutions who are holding summer jobs and, with the exception of courses requiring laboratory assignments, will be held two evenings per week, Monday through Thursday.

Two credit hour courses will run from 6:30 to 8:20, while three-hour courses will run from 6:30 to 9:20. Course times have been arranged to allow for a break during each class session.

LISBON — Columbiana County Selective Service Board 16 sent 64 young men to Cleveland this morning for induction and pre-induction physical examinations.

Mrs. Elane Griffith, clerk, said eight went for induction and 56 for physicals. Board 16 has a call for 55 men for induction May 27.

Scheduled for induction today were Ross D. Freeman, 284 E. 6th St. and Arthur J. K. Spack, 1389 Broadview Dr., both of Salem; Richard E. Gregg, Salem RD 4; Ronald L. Possage, Lisbon RD 2; Edward E. Hashman of Jeannette, Pa., formerly of Lisbon RD 2; Charles A. Bruno, East Palestine; William L. Gregory, Columbiana RD 2, and Jeffrey MacLean, 1318 Hillcrest Rd., Wells-ville.

Board Hears Report

New Water Well Drilled For Hookstown School

A new well and necessary building repairs were discussed by the Board of Directors of the South Side Beaver Jointure Schools Monday night.

Smith Drilling of Chester has sunk a 90-foot well on the north side of the school property at a cost of $546. The water flow is apparently very good, officials said.

The firm located some water at 45 feet, but a more adequate flow was found at the greater depth.

THE BUILDING and grounds committee headed by George Hayve of Greene Township discussed other work to be completed before water is run to the school. Included are cutting a roadway to the well site and securing a right-of-way for electric service from Route 151 to the well.

A pump and the necessary lines also must be installed. Victor F. Thomas, supervising principal, said the cost of the entire project will be about $3,000. He said the school has had a water problem since it was opened in 1956. Water has been hauled for some time.

The school currently has 1,100 students. Bids for other parts of the water project have been solicited. The committee was authorized to award contracts.

B. J. McCandless of Ellwood City was retained as a consultant on a problem of water leaks around outside metal panels on the north and south sides of the high school. Repair specifications are being prepared. Thomas said some inside damage to walls and ceilings has resulted.

THE BOARD adopted a resolution authorizing the renewal of the lease agreement on three mobile buildings at a cost of $21,213. The buildings house kindergarten classes and the library.

After 1969, the jointure will have the option of returning the buildings or purchase them for $1.

Thomas was authorized to continue the kindergarten and library programs the coming years if funds become available. He said it is hoped transportation can be provided next year for kindergarten students, especially those from low income homes.

The board recessed and will meet again May 20 at 7:30 p.m. to consider salary schedules and a tentative budget for the coming year.

Absenteeism At Cincinnati Schools Up Due To Boycott

CINCINNATI (AP)—Absenteeism at Cincinnati public schools Monday ran nearly double its normal rate but school officials refused to comment on any success of a boycott staged mainly by Negro pupils.

John Shreve, associate school superintendent, said 3,862 students did not report to class and normal absences at this time of year total about 2,000 a day.

The boycott, led by the Black Student Union (BSU) mainly protesting procedures used to reinstate pupils suspended in demonstrations last week, was to continue today.

Bailey Turner, president of the Avondale Community Council who headed the boycott call, has said the boycott will last indefinitely.

The absences Monday accounted for 22 per cent of the schools' total enrollment of 17,781.

Pickets did not appear at city schools but a group of about 250 persons, mostly Negro adults, marched in front of the Board of Education Building.

City officials met in a private session Monday called by Mayor Eugene Ruehlmann. Councilman John Held called for a study of the school situation.

"With all the studies this city has made in the past, we ought to make a study of adults leading the so-called boycott. We ought to see if they aren't tending to cause delinquency of minors and therefore be liable for arrest and prosecution," Held said.

Councilman John Keating said that the school board must "stand firm" against demands being made of it.

The BSU disagrees with the reinstatement procedure, where students and parents both sign their names on a statement saying further protests could lead to expulsion and possible legal proceedings. It also objects to the transfer of four Withrow High School students to a disciplinary center. This action spurred demonstrations last week.

Up to half a million persons crowd into St. Peter's colonnaded piazza on special occasions such as Easter.

2 Drivers Cited For Crash That Blocked Bridge

Two truck drivers were cited Monday after their vehicles collided and blocked traffic on the Newell bridge for nearly two hours.

William S. Wilson, 32, of 728 Avondale St. was charged with failure to have his vehicle under control by the Hancock County sheriff's department when his truck, westbound on Route 2, was struck on the left side and forced into the abutments on the east end of the Newell Bridge.

David Elmer Betts, 24, of East Palestine RD 1 was charged with failure to yield the right-of-way.

Officers said Wilson's truck received about $1,000 damage as the result of the mishap and Betts' truck about $300.

Damage to the bridge was minor, officers said.

The Wilson truck was towed away about 9:30 a. m. deputies reported, clearing the way for traffic.

Council Hears Report

GEORGETOWN — Councilman Harry Smith reported on a conference held at Beaver on the Sewage Facilities Act at a meeting Monday night. Mayor William E. Cromer presided in the absence of Curtis L. Finley, president. Bills totaling $137 were paid. The next meeting will be June 3 at 7 p.m.

Noted Surgeon Dies

CHICAGO (AP) — Dr. Willis J. Potts, 73, pioneer in pediatric surgery credited with devising a heart operation that saved hundreds of "blue babies" from death, died Sunday. Potts' technique, developed in 1946, involved correction of congenital heart defects that cut off oxygen supplies in infants and gave their skin a blue color.

Young Proposes Changes In Draft

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, offered a bill Monday proposing major changes in the draft as congressmen denounced the present system of taking men for the armed services.

Young proposed a bill to limit the obligation of a draftee to 18 months, saying "the need for a 24-month term of service no longer exists, if indeed it ever did."

Young said he looks forward to the time when "we shall end military conscription and establish a professional volunteer army."

Rep. Charles W. Whalen Jr., R-Ohio, was one of five Republican representatives who accused Selective Service Director Lewis B. Hershey and the Johnson administration of having "irresponsibly failed to deal constructively with an issue as important as the draft."

They introduced legislation to change the Selective Service Act. Requirements would include drafting of 19-year-olds first, and — that draft boards abide by uniform national criteria for deferments.

No star has been definitely identified as the Star of Bethlehem.

Ohio Counties
Are Declared
Needy Areas

WASHINGTON (AP) — Five Ohio counties — Brown, Clermont, Gallia, Licking and Scioto — hit by tornadoes April 23, have been declared disaster areas by President Johnson.

The action releases $270,000 in federal funds for getting water, sewer and other public facilities back in operation and removal of debris.

Five counties in Kentucky, hit by tornadoes the same day, also were declared disaster areas. Johnson acted on the requests of Gov. James A. Rhodes of Ohio and Gov. Louie B. Nunn of Kentucky. Thirteen persons were killed in the two states.

The White House said the small Business Administration has set up emergency loan offices at Wheelersburg, Ohio, and Falmouth and Dover, Ky., to make available long-term, low-interest advances to help businessmen and private property owners restore damaged property.

Green To Assist
With Boys State

Barry L. Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Green of Cannons Mills Rd., has been selected to serve as counselor at Buckeye Boys State this summer.

Green, a freshman at Ohio University, Athens, site of the event, attended the mock legislative conference in 1966. He was sponsored by Glennon American Legion Post 736 and was elected to several offices during the 10-day governmental program.

He and students from 30 colleges will serve as counselors for the conference, will begin June 12. Green was graduated from Beaver Local High School in 1967.

Auxiliary's Head
In District Post

Mrs. Jane Plantz, president of the Auxiliary of Joe Connelly War World I Barracks, was installed as conductress during the district meeting Sunday at Strasburg, Ohio.

Other representatives of the local group who attended were Mrs. Amy Watson, Mrs. Carrie Storeh, Mrs. Hattie Doughty and Mrs. Helen Mackey.

A report of the meeting will be given at the June 6 meeting in the DAV hall. The state convention will be held June 7 at Columbus.

Money, Pistol Taken
In Columbiana Entry

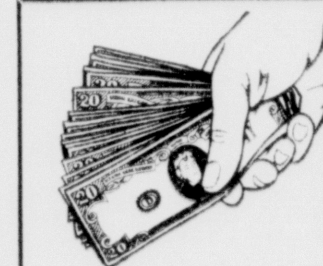

COLUMBIANA — Thieves broke into Al Ferguson's Farm Market and attached dwelling on Route 7 Saturday night and took cigarettes, money and a .22-caliber pistol.

Sheriff's Deputy Dan Gartland investigated after Ferguson reported the burglary at 12:04 a.m. Sunday. The deputy said the intruder evidently got into the garage through an open door then broke a hasp off a door into the market. The thief used a crowbar to pry open a door from the market into the house.

Gartland said the house was ransacked. He said Ferguson told him the thief took approximately $200 worth of cigarettes in the market and an undetermined amount of money and the pistol from the house. The money included 35 $1 silver certificates.

Merle McCurdy,
Civil Disorders
Counsel, Claimed

CLEVELAND (AP) — Merle M. McCurdy, who was general counsel for the National Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders, died of a brain hemorrhage after collapsing at Cleveland Hopkins Airport Monday.

The 55-year-old McCurdy formerly was U.S. attorney for Northern Ohio—a post to which he was appointed by the late President John F. Kennedy—and was put on special assignment last August as general counsel for the commission.

He resigned officially as U.S. attorney last month and started a new job, becoming the first consumer counsel in the Justice Department in Washington.

He was in the process of setting up machinery for the government agency, which is to be responsible for enforcing newly enacted consumer protection legislation.

McCurdy came to Cleveland Sunday to make the main address at the Freedom Fund dinner of the Cleveland branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

He collapsed shortly after he and his wife, checked in for a flight back to their home in Washington, D.C.

McCurdy was born in Connecticut and studied law at Western Reserve University, graduating in 1947. He had worked his way through school with jobs in poolrooms, as a bellhop and on Great Lakes boats.

He was a criminal lawyer from 1947 until 1952, when he was named assistant Cuyahoga County prosecutor. In 1960 he was picked to become the first county public defender.

He became U.S. attorney in 1961—only the second Negro in the country to become a "D.A."

Overlooked in the hoop-la surrounding Jim Taucher's record-breaking pole vault at the county track meet in East Palestine Saturday was an 11-foot vault by John Frederick of East Liverpool which tied the school record. Frederick finished third.

Taucher was almost smothered after his dramatic vault, as the home town fans literally piled on him as he lay on the mat. The majority of the fans at the meet seemed to be from East Palestine, although Salem and Columbiana had good delegations. There were few East Liverpool fans in evidence.

Rick Loker of the Potters suffered an ankle injury and could not run in the 220. Loker complained of a sore foot before the qualifying race and said he heard something snap during the race, which he won. There was swelling and intense pain and he had to go to the hospital. X-rays will disclose the exact nature of the injury.

TERRY LAWRENCE, who played basketball at East Liverpool High School prior to his graduation in 1965, was one of the leading scorers in the fraternity league at Youngstown U. this past season. He averaged 31.8 a game for Sigma Tau Gamma and hit 92 per cent of his foul shots, the best in the league. Terry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Lawrence of 1350 Florence Drive in Russell Heights, Wellsville.

THERE WILL be a banquet May 18 at VFW Post 66 in East Liverpool to honor the VFW District 6 senior high school athlete of the year. Among the nominees is Mike McVay of East Liverpool. Others include Don Osby and Dave Corsi of Steubenville and Lionel Grimes of Alliance.

THREE OHIO U. wrestlers and their coach, Harry Houska, qualified for the final Olympic trials to be held May 9-11 at Ames, Iowa, in district competition at Toledo. Houska won the 213½-pound class and freshman Bruce Trammell the 154-pound class. Also qualifying were Pat Curley in 138½ and Chuck McBean in 191½. Both are freshmen.

DAVE LEITCH, an Ohio U. freshman from London, Ontario, set a Canadian citizens' record with a hammer throw of 185-3 in the Penn Relays.

Kline Gets Save

Bunning Beats Braves, Clendenon Hits Homer

ATLANTA (AP) — "Bunning is a tough one to beat," said Braves' manager Luman Harris.

Jim Bunning lived up to those words Monday night as the Pirates took a 2-1 victory over Atlanta. He allowed the Braves only four hits until the eighth inning.

That was when he tumbled to the ground clutching his ankle as a single by Felipe Alou bounced past the mound and into center field. The ball didn't touch him.

A postgame report said that the 36-year-old right-hander suffered a "slight sprain of the right ankle."

Bunning walked off the field with a limp and was taken to a local hospital for precautionary X-rays. Results of the X-rays were expected today.

It was Bunning's third game and he's now a two-time loser. But the big question is not Bunning's pitching ability but his injury. If the injury is serious it will hurt the Bucs since they're already playing without Willie Stargell. The outfielder fell and slipped Friday night in Philadelphia while fielding a ball.

When Ron Kline stepped in to save Bunning's victory the score had been 2-1 from the fifth inning.

Donn Clendenon belted his fourth home run of the season in the fourth and brought home Roberto Clemente who had beat out a hit to short.

Atlanta took its run from Bunning in the fifth when Alou singled and Sonny Jackson tripled him home.

In saving the victory for Bunning, Kline had to pitch his way out of a jam when two Braves got on base in the eighth.

Alou was on base with a single and Hank Aaron moved him to second with a single to center. Kline got Tito Francona to bounce into a double play.

Losers Pat Jarvis gave up only four hits as his record fell to 2-3.

Cornell Hurls 2-Hitter

Oak Glen Wins Third, Edges Weirton Madonna

Oak Glen won its third baseball game in a row last night, traveling to Weirton and downing Madonna 4-3.

Ron Cornell was the winning pitcher, allowing only two hits in seven innings. The Golden Bears managed only three hits, but combined them with errors to score their runs.

Trailing 3-0 in the third, Oak Glen scored when Dave Dugan was safe on an error, John Manypenny singled, the runners moved up on an infield out and Dave Anderson drove in both runners with a single. In the fourth, the Golden Bears scored what proved to be the winning runs. George Anderson walked, Steve Staley doubled and both runners scored on an error by the leftfielder.

Oak Glen is now 3-5.

Piatt Tosses 3-Hitter, Beavers Nip Carrollton

Beaver Local kept unbeaten in Buckeye Border Conference baseball play with a 1-0 win over Carrollton on the losers' field yesterday.

Mike Piatt pitched a three-hitter as the Beavers ran their overall record to 10-4. Carrollton is 6-7, 3-2 in league play. Piatt allowed only one runner as far as second, and he was picked off.

The Beavers threatened in the third, when Bob Flint hit a two-out triple, and again in the fifth, when they loaded the bases but couldn't score. But they finally broke through Rocky Smith in the sixth, with the help of some bad fielding. Dennis Klembara singled, took second when the leftfielder fumbled the ball, stole third and scored on a wild throw by the catcher.

McDowell Sets Strikeout Mark

MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Dave Leonhard has joined Baltimore's growing trend toward inactivating relief pitchers, although less strikingly than Sam McDowell's method of putting hitters out of business.

The 26-year-old rookie righthander kept the Orioles' bullpen in moth balls for the sixth straight game by cutting down Detroit on one hit Monday night as Baltimore beat the Tigers 4-0 for its eighth straight triumph.

"Those starters are getting serious," said reliever Moe Drabowsky after Leonhard gave up only Jim Northrup's two-out seventh inning single for the Orioles' six consecutive complete game. "We'll have to have an intrasquad game Thursday for the relievers."

New York Yankee hitters — except for Mickey Mantle — also took an enforced rest as McDowell struck out 14 of them en route to setting a strikeout record and pitching Cleveland to a 3-2 victory.

The strikeouts, along with 11 in Sudden Sam's last outing, broke Bob Feller's American League mark of 28 for consecutive games, and came within one of Sandy Koufax' major league mark.

McDowell, pitching the Indians to their fifth straight victory, did give up seven hits, but only one did any damage — Mantle's 522nd career homer with a man on in the first inning, moving him into fourth place on the all-time list ahead of Ted Williams. Only Babe Ruth, Willie Mays and Jimmy Foxx are ahead of him.

Leonhard and McDowell thus overshadowed Tommy John's three-hitter that pulled the Chicago White Sox by the California Angels 5-1.

In the only other American League game, the Oakland A's needed five pitchers to subdue Minnesota 2-1 for their fourth victory in a row.

Leonhard, trying to match teammate Tom Phoebus' no-hitter April 27 that started the Baltimore spree, had some troubles, walking seven and hitting two. But the Tigers helped out by having four runners thrown out on the bases. He is now 2-0 after hurling a five-hitter earlier in the streak.

The shutout was the third in 10 games for the Orioles and lowered the staff's earned run average to 1.40 during that time. And on the bulletin board in the locker room was posted a "bullpen vacation schedule."

Dave May singled twice for two runs and Dave Johnson scored once and drove in another run off loser Joe Sparma to raise the Orioles' league lead over the Tigers to 2½ games.

McDowell continued Cleveland's move toward halting hitters by mowing down the Yankees after Mantle's homer produced the most runs off Indians' pitching in five games. But McDowell got those runs back by singling home the tying and winning runs off Mel Stottlemyre during a three-run third inning.

Only in the ninth did the Yankees get another chance when a single and two walks loaded the bases with one out, but McDowell got two pinch hitters on a pop up and a fly out for his third victory in four decisions.

John fell behind in the second inning on Bubba Morton's first homer of the season, but from there had little trouble running his record to 3-0.

Rookie Bill Melton put him ahead by singling in the fourth inning off Rickie Clark after Bobby Knoop's error, and Bill Voss doubled in a run in the ninth and Tom Cullen followed with his first homer.

Reggie Jackson's fourth inning solo homer, his fifth, off Dean Chance, 3-4, put Oakland and Jim Nash ahead 2-1, but Nash, 1-2, had to leave in the seventh with a leg injury.

Manager Bob Kennedy, keeping his bullpen in action, then used Ed Sprague, Paul Lindblad, Diego Segui and Tony Pierce to save the victory.

Leonhard Wild In One-Hitter

BALTIMORE (AP) — Dave Leonhard, a college graduate and former schoolteacher, rated no better than A-minus for his 4-0, one-hit victory over the Detroit Tigers Monday night.

The rookie right-hander of the Baltimore Orioles also issued seven walks and hit two batters as his performance fell short of the no-hitter hurled by teammate Tom Phoebus on April 27.

The way the Baltimore pitching staff has been going lately, it takes a one-hitter just to gain attention.

Leonhard's route-going effort was the sixth in a row for the Orioles, tying a club record set in 1961. Over the past 10 games, the staff has turned in three shutouts and compiled an earned run average of 1.40, with six hits the most given up in any game.

"I know it sounds phony," Leonhard said, "but I would have been more disappointed losing the shutout than the no-hitter. A no-hitter sounded like such a wild thing."

Sweden Has Davis Cup Lead 2-1

By The Associated Press

The Davis Cup European Zone playoff without a home moves into its final two singles matches today with Sweden leading Rhodesia 2-1.

The Swedes captured Monday's double as Ove Bengtson and Hans Norwell defeated Frank Salomon and Adrian Bey 6-2, 6-3, 6-0 at Bandol, France. The series was moved to France after demonstrators protesting Rhodesia's apartheid racial policies disrupted play at Bastaad, Sweden.

Sweden can wrap up the series by winning either one of today's singles.

In other Davis Cup zone play Monday, Germany, Norway and Spain completed series victories.

Germany completed a 4-1 romp over Switzerland, Norway beat Luxembourg also 4-1 and Spain squeaked past the Netherlands 3-2.

Art Brown Out To Oust George Mikan

By LEW FERGUSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — How far will dissident New Jersey owner Arthur Brown carry his virtual one-man campaign to bring about the removal of George Mikan as commissioner of the American Basketball Association?

That appeared to be the prime question as ABA trustees and owners headed into the second day of their annual meeting today.

Brown, it was learned, brought his feud with Mikan to a head at Monday's session after losing an attempt to make ironclad a league regulation that no new franchise may be placed within 100 miles of an established franchise.

The ABA has been talking of placing a 12th franchise in New York City and Mikan has said in the past he feels the league should have a team there. Brown's Americans just switched from Teaneck to Newark, N. J.

Failing to get even one owner to support his proposal that no team could be placed in New York, Brown and his attorney then informed the meeting that a suit has been filed and that Brown wants Mikan out as commissioner.

What triggered Brown's campaign to oust Mikan was the commissioner's ruling a month ago forcing New Jersey to forfeit its playoff game to Kentucky to decide fourth place in the Eastern Division.

Dan Gurney Doesn't Like Turbine Cars

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Dan Gurney says he prefers to stay with the conventional piston-engine cars rather than switch to the revolutionary turbines.

"This wouldn't be much of a race if everything out there was a turbine," Gurney said Monday during practice for the Indianapolis 500-mile race.

"You may see that day" when turbines fill the field for the Memorial Day race, he said, "but I'd like to be able to say I was one of the last ones to make the switch."

Gurney, of Costa Mesa, Calif., drove his rear-engine Ford 167.2 miles a hour Monday—fastest since 500 practice began May 1. "There's something about a piston-engine car—the noise, the feel," Gurney said.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY. Willie Mays sits surrounded by a 569-pound birthday cake given him by Judge Roy Hofheinz (background) in the Astrodome last night. The cake was one pound for every one of Mays' homers. (UPI Telephoto)

Astros Trounce Giants

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Roy Hofheinz presented Willie Mays with an Astrodome birthday cake, but Denny Lemaster wasn't giving away a thing.

Hofheinz, the Texas-thinking owner of the Houston Astros, helped the Giant slugger celebrate his 37th birthday in the Astrodome Monday night. He gave Mays a cake weighing 569 pounds, one for every one of his career homers.

Then the game started and Willie might have been back in the dressing room eating his cake for all the hitting he did.

He went 0-for-3 at the plate as Lemaster shackled the Giants and Rusty Staub and his teammates poured it on for a 10-2 Houston victory.

The cake, according to those who did the counting, was eight feet square and contained 3,800 eggs. Hofheinz also gave Mays a couple of gallons of champagne, which he thoughtfully shared with his fellow Giants to drown their postgame sorrows.

In other National League games Monday night, Cincinnati bombed Philadelphia 10-1, Pittsburgh edged Atlanta 2-1 and St. Louis trimmed New York 2-1 in 10 innings.

Staub, spraying hits with abandon, drove in six runs for the Astros with a double and three singles. Gaylord Perry, 2-2, was the victim of seven runs in the first two innings. Lemaster gave up the Giants' only run on Willie McCovey's seventh homer in the eighth.

John Bench broke out of a hitting slump with a homer, a single and a double in the Phillies' lopsided triumph. George Culver went the distance for Philadelphia despite giving up 10 hits. Pete Rose homered and extended his hitting streak for the Reds to 21 games.

Donn Clendenon's two-run homer in the fourth inning, his fourth of the season, gave Pittsburgh the slim margin it needed to beat the Braves. Jim Bunning allowed Atlanta just four hits, but had to leave in the eighth with a twisted ankle. The injury was not believed to be serious.

Lou Brock tripled in the 11th and scored on Orlando Cepeda's single to break up a tight duel between Bob Gibson of the Cards and Tom Seaver of the Mets. Gibson, striking out 11, gave up only three hits and none in the last seven innings. Seaver gave up just three hits after the second.

Jockey 3rd, Backers Lose In England

CARLISLE, England (AP) — A jockey finished third in a race at Carlisle Monday night — nipped at the post by his own horse.

Chris Collins was riding Dandy Tom to a second-place finish behind Signal Guide when Dandy Tom threw Collins off.

Collins jumped up and ran after his horse. The horse crossed the finish line after Signal Guide and Collins finished third. It was a photo finish among the three.

Unfortunately for Collins, and for Dandy Tom's backers, the jockey was unable to catch the horse. Having lost contact, both horse and rider were disqualified.

South Side Nips Western In 9th 6-5

South Side had to go two extra innings before defeating Western Beaver 6-5 on the losers' field Monday.

The Rams are now 2-2 in Section 4 play, Western 0-4. The losers were hurt by seven errors, as winning pitcher Francis Nash and loser Clyde Hendershot both scattered singles.

The Rams tied the game in the seventh and each team scored once in the first extra inning.

Expansion Clubs Like Draft Picks

NEW YORK (AP) — "I'm very happy with our selections," said John Kerr.
"I'm all excited," said Larry Costello.
Kerr, coach of the new Phoenix Suns in the National Basketball Association, and Costello, his counterpart with the new Milwaukee franchise, both reacted favorably Monday to the players they picked up from the established teams in the league's expansion draft.

Phoenix obtained such players as Dick Van Arsdale and Emmette Bryant from New York, Gail Goodrich from Los Angeles, McCoy McLemore from Chicago, Dick Snyder and Gene Tomohlen from St. Louis and George Wilson from Seattle.

Milwaukee drafted, among others, Fred Hetzel of San Francisco, Wayne Embry from Boston, Len Chappell from Detroit, Guy Rodgers from Cincinnati and Jon McGlocklin from San Diego.

Kerr signed with the Phoenix team after two years at the helm of the Chicago Bulls.

Costello retired as a player for Philadelphia after an early season injury.

Each of the 12 established teams was allowed to protect seven of its players and, after one of those remaining was selected, could protect one more.

New Zealand Drops Tennis Tourney Bid
AUCKLAND, New Zealand (AP) — The New Zealand Lawn Tennis Association is withdrawing its offer to stage the 1969 Federation Cup Women's International Tournament.

It has decided to advise the International Lawn Tennis Federation accordingly.

The tournament would have been held in Auckland. The Auckland Association said however, it felt it was inadvisable to go ahead because of the difficulty of getting sponsorship and because of the growing number of top world women players turning professional.

Cassius Clay Loses Another Court Appeal

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Former world heavyweight boxing champion Cassius Clay has lost another round in his legal fight to avoid a prison sentence imposed for refusing induction into the Armed Forces.

The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals here Monday upheld Clay's conviction and five-year prison term, rejecting his claims to be a conscientious objector because of being a Black Muslim minister.

Clay, who prefers his Muslim name of Muhammad Ali, was convicted on criminal charges by a federal court jury in Houston, Tex., last June 20. The judge gave him the maximum sentence—five years behind bars and a $10,000 fine.

Lawyers for Clay, who is free on $5,000 bond, have promised a fight to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Clay's battle with the federal courts began April 28, 1967, at the Houston Induction Center, where, in a highly publicized move, he refused to take the traditional one step forward which signifies entry into the military.

The influential U.S. boxing circles stripped Clay of his title when he defied the draft, but some countries of the world continue to recognize him as champion.

In its opinion the court noted that Clay "claims to be a minister of the lost nation of Islam (Black Muslims)" and maintains he was due a ministerial exemption from the draft.

Tracing Clay's activities back several years, the judges decided, "his vocation is clearly that of a professional boxer."

Clay contended that his constitutional rights had been violated by a systematic exclusion of Negroes from draft boards.

But the court quoted the National Advisory Commission on Selective Service as saying "there is no evidence that the variability of the Selective Service systems leads to any systematic biases against poor people, or Negroes."

Columbiana Golfers Win Two Matches

Columbiana won a triangular golf match at Valley yesterday, downing Sebring 8-1 and East Palestine 6-3.

East Palestine blanked Sebring 9-0. Jim Lundy of the Bulldogs was medalist with a 36. Other scores for East Palestine were 39s by Fran Ross and Steve Morris and a 43 by Dan Moore.

Bill Gela paced the Clippers with a 37, while Roy Jackson had a 38 and Jim Powers and Cliff Newell 39s.

Laguna Segs Race Won By Donohue

MONTEREY, Calif. (AP) — Speeding to a track record of 107.2 m.p.h., Mark Donohue of Stony Brook, N.Y., won the Laguna Segs auto race Sunday by less than two car lengths ahead of Lohar Molschenbacher, Beverly Hills, Calif., both driving McLarens.

Yesterday's Stars

PITCHING—Rookie Dave Leonhard, Orioles, cut down Detroit on one hit—Jim Northrup's single with two out in the seventh inning—and pitched Baltimore to a 4-0 victory.

BATTING—Rusty Staub, Astros, stroked three singles and a double and drove in six runs as Houston belted San Francisco 10-2.

A Junior Editors Quiz About MT. ARARAT

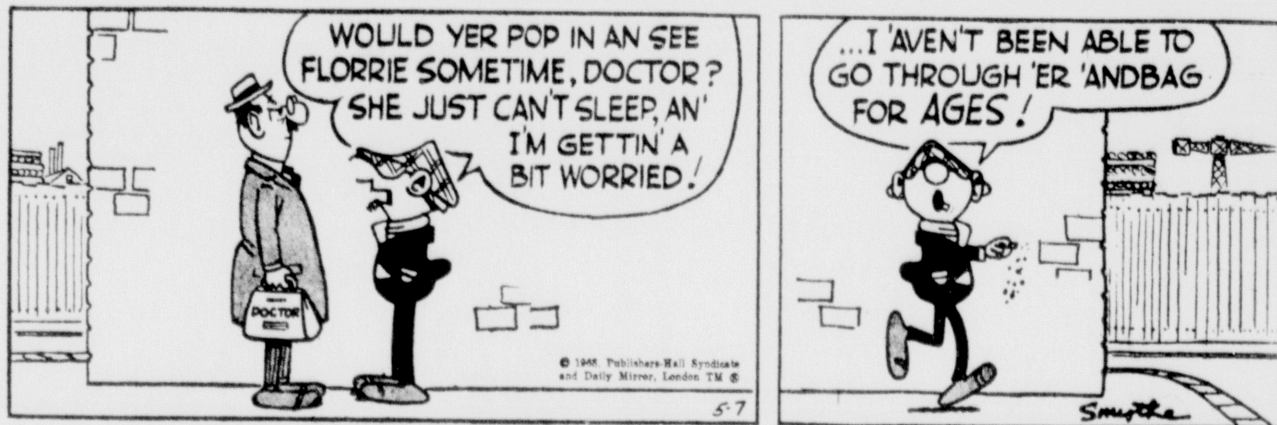

QUESTION: Has Mount Ararat ever been found?

ANSWER: This famous mountain is mentioned in the Bible, as part of the story of Noah's Ark, which, after the great flood, rested, according to Genesis 8, verse 4, "upon the mountains of Ararat." The two crests or summits of Ararat were never lost; they still exist. We give an idea of the location on our map. Ararat lies in Turkish territory, between the southern parts of the Black and Caspian Seas. The higher peak of Ararat, called Great Ararat, soars to 16,945 feet. Many people have been impressed by the fact that Mt. Ararat lies midway between some large areas of water, such as the Black and Caspian Seas, which might have been left by the retreating waters of the flood. A number of expeditions have climbed the mountain, hoping to find traces of the Ark, but so far without success. But the story of the animals going in and out of the Ark, two by two, has an endless fascination; and countless artists, including our own, have enjoyed giving their special version of it.

Michael Lee of Travis AFB, Calif., wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash plus AP's World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review, is selected for a prize.

Treaty Organization wound up a meeting in Copenhagen by calling on the Soviets to join Western nations in technical talks on preventing surprise attacks and detecting nuclear explosions. Five years ago — The United States launched its second "Telstar" communications satellite. One year ago — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower was hospitalized at Walter Reed Hospital in Washington after suffering a gastric attack.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Tuesday, May 7, the 128th day of 1968. There are 238 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1945, representatives of the German high command signed unconditional surrender terms at Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's temporary headquarters at Rheims, France.

On this date:

In 1789, the first President's Inaugural ball was held in New York in honor of President and Mrs. George Washington.

In 1833, the German composer, Johannes Brahms, was born.

In 1915, the British liner, "Lusitania," was torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine off Ireland. More than 1,100 persons lost their lives.

In 1939, the military and political alliance known as the Rome - Berlin Axis was announced by Germany and Italy.

In 1943, Allied forces in World War II won a major victory in North Africa as Tunis and Bizerte were liberated.

In 1960, it was announced by Moscow that an American pilot shot down over Russia, Francis Gary Powers, would be put on trial as a spy.
